Bellefonte Republican.

Established In 1859 | "Let Us See To it that A Government of the People, for the People and by the People, Shall Not perish from the Earth."—A. LINCOLN. | TERMS : $1.00 Per Year

VOL. XXXI | BELLEFONTE, PA., THURSDAY MORNING, OCTOBER 18, 1900. | NO. 39

Watchman

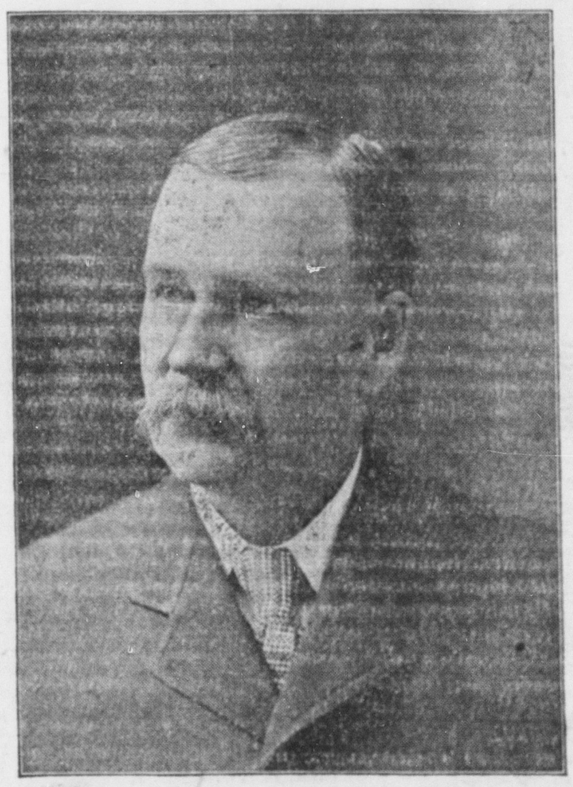
OUR GALLANT AND BRAVE LEADER

Col. Alfred A. Clearwater, the Republican Candidate for Congress.

IN THE 28TH CONGRESSIONAL DISTRICT

Interesting Sketch of a Noble and Courageous Man—An Heroic Drummer Boy "Who Was in the Thickest of the Fight and Never Quailed."

HIS HOME IS AT WILCOX, ELK COUNTY, PA



Alfred A. Clearwater was born in Ulster county, N. Y., on March 21, 1848. His parents, Richard and Rachel (Osterhout) Clearwater were also natives of that county. His father was a millwright by trade, and moved to Susquehanna county, Penna., in 1864 and for some years was a car builder in the Susquehanna shops. He was a deacon and superintendent of the Sunday school in the Baptist Church for many years and died in 1882. The mother is still living, and resides with her daughter near Ridgway.

Alfred A. Clearwater was reared in Ulster county, N. Y., and received an ordinary education. In 1861 he enlisted in Company D, 156th N. Y. Volunteer Infantry, as a drummer boy, being unable to get into the army in any other way, as he was less than fourteen years old and weighed only 96 pounds. He threw away the drum and took up the gun at the first opportunity and was soon promoted to sergeant for conspicuous bravery. He was shot through the left knee and crippled for life at the battle of Port Hudson, Louisana. Our little hero participated in three fierce but unsuccessful charges in that great struggle before he was wounded. After he was shot he lay on the battlefield nearly twelve hours. The particulars of his participation in that battle are most graphically told by the man who was his Captain at that time, Col. Alfred Neafie. We take the following paragraph from a description of the battle which Col. Neafie wrote for the Ellenville, N. Y. Journal shortly after the battle:

"I must mention one incident that deserves to be recorded and remembered. Alfred A. Clearwater, a drummer in my company (D) the company at present being on duty with Companies A and G at General Banks' headquarters, was on duty in the ambulance corps, and had charge of a stretcher and four negroes, and rendered the most efficient service, was in the thickest of the battle and kept his men at work, and brought off a large number of wounded men. His bravery and efficiency were remarked and applauded by all. He did his whole duty when others quailed before the fierce and deadly fire. He finally heard that General Payne was wounded within six rods of the entrenchments and could not be removed. He volunteered to bring him off and started with his four negroes. In a few minutes he and three of his men were shot. They brought him safely off the field. The bullet was extracted from his knee, and he was immediately sent to Springfield Sunday. I have the bullet now in my possession and will give it to him as soon as I can see him. He is a brave and noble boy." This glowing tribute we find still preserved by Col. Clearwater's mother, who has it pasted inside the lid of her Bible.

This brave boy came near losing his limb, but six months' nursing in the hospital at New Orleans restored him so he could be discharged and sent home on crutches. He could not re-enlist because of his wound and fretted greatly because he could not get back into the army.

He attended school a year at Harvard University in Susquehanna county on crutches, and then went to learn the trade of a tanner with his uncle, W. H. Osterhout, at Glenwood, Pa., and while he worked on the beam he was compelled for months to walk to and from his work on crutches. He served an apprenticeship for four years and then took the superintendency of a tannery at Herrick Center for four years, after which, in connection with two partners, he purchased the Glenwood tannery. After two years he purchased the interest of one of his partners, and two years later became sole owner of the same, which he conducted for seven years. He then, in company with W. H. Osterhout, began operations at Penfield, Clearfield county, Pa., which he continued for one year. In 1883 he accepted the position of superintendent of the great tannery at Wilcox, Elk county, and moved to that place, where he still resides, though he resigned his position in the tannery about two years ago, to take a well-earned rest. Col. Clearwater met with remarkable success as superintendent of the Wilcox tannery, making that great enterprise pay better than it ever had in all its history. He is thorough in everything he undertakes, putting his whole life and energy into his work. He used brain as well as brawn, and has patented several labor saving devices, which are monuments to his genius.

Col. Clearwater is an Elder in the Presbyterian Church and superintendent of their Sunday School. He is a Past Commander of Hiram Warner Post, No. 594 of Wilcox. He is also a Past Grand in Wilcox Lodge, No. 1074, I. O. O. F., and Past Commander in Wilcox Tent, No. 156, Knights of the Maccabees.

Col. Clearwater did not secure his title of Colonel during the war, for he was too young, even though it was well earned. After the war, during his residence in Susquehanna county, he was a prominent member of the Seven Counties Veterans' Association and they elected him Colonel and he commanded one of their regiments at their annual re-unions, and the title has stuck to him ever since. It was the custom of these survivors of the great struggle to camp out after harvest every fall for three days. They had sham battles and all the hilarities and refreshments of war times, and it was a great occasion with the old soldiers.

The Republican party presents such a man to represent the twenty-eighth district in Congress, and he should certainly be elected by a large majority. He is worthy and most competent—a man who would represent us all with signal ability, and there can be no doubt that he would look after the interests of his old comrades much better than a man who never smelled powder, and can have no influence with the Administration. Let every patriot in the district vote for Col. A. A. Clearwater for Congress. He will "do his whole duty" and always stand by the flag.

"The Record" Has no Candidate.

The Philadelphia Record, the leading Democratic newspaper of the state, has no candidate this year for President, and the following reply to an address adopted by the Bryan and Stevenson club of the Ninth ward, Lancaster, Pa., in which the club severely criticises and centures The Record for the stand it has taken in the present campaign, will fully explain itself.

"The Record would very much like to please the Bryan and Stevenson Club of the Ninth ward of Lancaster, but it could not do so without swallowing itself.

"The Record remains steadfast to Democracy as it was before the party was Bryanized in 1896. It prefers Jefferson, Madison, Jackson and Cleveland before Bryan and Stevenson and Populism. It knows that a very large proportion of the vote cast for Bryan in 1896 was made up of Silver Republicans, and that a still larger proportion was made up of the willing Democrats who followed the flag though they distrusted the flag-bearer.

"The Democratic dissent and disgust of 1896 have been intensified in 1900. The Kansas City platform was imposed upon the party against its better judgment by the insistence of the candidate already named by the Populist party, and was carried in committee by the casting vote of the delegate from Hawaii.

"In the present contest The Record has no candidate. It prefers to stand aloof, giving both sides a hearing and neither side advice. It would be false to itself, and it would be of no particular use to anybody."

A Magnificent Gift.

On Wednesday last a large and handsome library building completely equipped, with a good library and endowed with a fund of $30,000 for its maintainance was dedicated at Alexandria this state. The generous donors are Wm. Thompson and Wm. H. Wolverton, great grandsons of Elizabeth Porter Gemmell, who founded Alexandria in 1793. The building is complete in every respect and cost $16,000 and contains a library of 2,000 volumes; conveniently indexed, and is also supplied with the leading monthly and weekly periodicals and the daily newspapers of the cities. The example of these public spirited gentlemen is worthy of imitation.

George T. Bisel, of Philadelphia, the law book dealer, has purchased the large library of the late Judge John J. Metzger, of Williamsport. There are about 1000 volumes in the library.

THE BIG COUNTY FAIR !

First Annual Fair of the Centre County Agricultural Exhibiting Company.

OPENED TUESDAY OCTOBER 16

Fine Exhibits of Agricultural Implements, Farm Products, Fancy Work, Live Stock, Poultry etc.—Accommodations for Visitors.

MANY AMUSEMENTS PROVIDED

The First annual fair of the Centre County Agricultural Exhibiting company opened its gates to the public Tuesday afternoon, Oct. 16. The weather was cool and a slight rain fell in the afternoon but in spite of this quite a crowd took advantage of the opportunity to witness the opening of the first fair held in Centre county in 19 years.

The fair grounds located as they are in a beautiful valley and surrounded by mountain scenery, meadow land and with miniature lakes in their centre are in a fine condition and present a very inviting prospect for the thousands of people who will visit them in the next 3 days. Every accommodation and amusement possible is provided for the sight-seers and nothing is left undone on the part of the management that will add to their comfort and convenience.

Tuesday was mostly taken up by the arranging of the exhibits and opening of the Midway. As you enter from the northern gate you come upon the Midway, where are exhibited all kinds of wares imaginable. Here is the main exhibition building with its varied show of exhibits. In this building is the Pennsylvania State College exhibit showing the work accomplished in the industrial part of the school. It is one of the finest exhibits on the ground.

James Schofield, Daniel Irwin & Son's, Phoenix Milling Company, Standard Sewing Machine Company, J. T. Buckwalter's cream separators and many other's have excellent exhibits in this building.

The poultry exhibit in a tent all by themselves is well worth the price of admission to the Fair alone to see. It is from the Sunnyside Poultry farm; Onondago, N. Y., Albert J. Bram, manager. Poultry of all kinds are to be found here and fine specimens at that. It is the finest exhibit of the kind ever seen at a fair in this state.

John G. Dubbs, L. H. Musser, McCalmont & Co. and L. C. Bullock have fine exhibits of agricultural implements, buggies, wagons, etc., in tents on the Midway.

Down in the lower end of the grounds are the stables and live stock exhibit. A fine selection of horses, cattle, hogs, sheep etc., are to be seen there. Col. W. Fred Reynolds and the Pennsylvania State College have the best exhibits in this line.

There is an exhibit in the main exhibition building which is attracting wide attention. It is that of George Miller, of Pleasant Gap, son of County Commissioner, Abram V. Miller, who unknown to a great many of his friends has become a taxidermist of remarkable ability. He has been at this work for the past two years and has shown great talent in this line. His exhibit of stuffed, birds and animals mounted in the best of style is certainly well worth seeing.

The amusements of the afternoon consisted of a live bird shoot, foot ball game and free exhibition before the grand stand by the Elliot Brothers, the finest comic acrobats and contortionists of New York city.

THE LIVE BIRD HOOT.

The live bird shoot was for the championship of Centre County and was by members of the Sportsmen League of Centre County and for the county championship. There was nine contestants. The score was as follows:

George Uzzle	1	0	0	0	0
W. R. Haines	0	1	1	0	0
Maurie Jackson	0	1	0	0	0
John Bower	0	0	1	0	1
L. H. Gettig	0	0	0	1	1
John Trafford	1	1	0	0	1
Linn McGinley	0	1	0	1	0
Chas. Heisler	0	0	1	0	0
R. F. Hunter	0	1	0	0	0

As will be seen by the above John Trafford, of Bellefonte, won first prize and the championship of Centre county. As there was a tie for second place they were compelled to shoot again and L. H. Gettig won second prize and Robert F. Hunter third. The first prize was a gun offered by Potter & Hoy; second prize a hunting coat by Montgomery & Co.; and third prize a sweater by Sim the Clothier.

THE FOOT BALL GAME.

The foot ball game between the Bellefonte Academy and the State College Preps took place at 4 o'clock on the athletic field. The game was interesting and hotly contested from start to finish. The best playing for Academy was by Curtin, Twitmire, Eadon and Hoy. The score was 11 to 0 in favor of Academy. The score and lineup was as follows:

Bellefonte Academy.	Positions	State Preps
Hoy	Left End	Yoder
Stevens (Capt.)	Left Tackle	Stout
G. McGee	Left Guard	Roder
Church	Centre	Savage
Babb	Right Tackle	Wort
Otto	Right End	Cunningham
Cassady	Quarterback	Elder
J Twitmire	Left Half back	Boyle
Eadon	Right Half back	Dieke
Curtin	Full Back	(Capt) Frey

Touchdowns—Curtin, Twitmire. Goal—Cassady. Referee—G. T. Bush, Swarthmore. Umpire—Miller, State. Linesmen—Kerr, Academy; Garber, State. Timekeepers—Munson, Academy; Russel, State. Time—10 and 15 minute halves.

FLAMES DESTROYED

The Plant of the Lock Haven Wood Working Company.

The plant of the Lock Haven Wood Working company together with the old nail mill plant were destroyed by fire Saturday afternoon.

The flames were first discovered in the sawdust and shavings under the floor near the eastern end of the building. As the building was of frame and all the material for handles was dry the flames reduced the building to ashes in a very short time.

The estimated loss is placed at $10,000. The insurance is $5,000, in companies represented by Gearhart & Co.

The nail mill plant also succumbed.

The origin of the flames is unknown, but it is supposed that a spark or lighted stump may have been dropped in the sawdust.—Lock Haven Democrat.

RECEIVED SHOT IN FACE.

John S. Furst Injured in a Hunting Accident Monday.

John S. Furst, a son of Hon. A. O. Furst, of this place, was injured while out hunting Monday. The particulars we gleam from the Williamsport Gazette and Bulletin.

John S. Furst, secretary and treasurer of the Central Pennsylvania Telephone and Supply company, was injured in a gunning accident Monday, in company with T. Newton Heilman, he was shooting along Bottle Run. His companion shot at a pheasant and Mr. Furst's head happening to be in a line with the bird, his face received most of the shot. It was at first thought that one of his eyes would be seriously affected, but it is now thought that the eye will come out all right. The pheasant was killed.

A Snow Shoe Man Killed on the Railroad.

Park Washington Bullick, of Snow Shoe, age 26, was killed Thursday night, Oct. 11th, at 7:52 o'clock while braking on a freight train at Wall station near Pittsburg on the Pennsylvania railroad. They were making a switch and in some manner, Bullick, lost his hold and was thrown under the cars. Twenty-five cars passed over the unfortunate man's body. He was literally cut to pieces.

The remains passed through Bellefonte Saturday morning on their way to Snow Shoe where the funeral took place Sunday afternoon at 1 o'clock. He was unmarried and was a son of Parke Bullick, of Snow Shoe.

—You can sometimes learn a great deal about a girl from the way she spells her name.

STRIKERS STILL WAITING.

So Far as Known the Operators Have Held No Meeting.

ONE HIGH OFFICIAL IS QUOTED

Said to Have Stated the Coal Carrying Railroads Will Guarantee the Ten Per Cent. Increase—Mitchell is Pleased.

THE MILITIA IS ON THE MOVE

NEW YORK, Oct. 16.—An afternoon paper says that a high officer of one of the principal coal mining companies said yesterday that the coal carrying railroads which control most of the mines in the anthracite region, would in a few days agree to guarantee that the 10 per cent. increase in the miners' wages should be kept in effect until April 1 next. The independent operators, in all probability, will follow any action of the companies. This concession of the chief demand made by the strikers in their convention at Scranton should, this officer thought, end the struggle. All the presidents of the coal roads said positively that no meeting was held here yesterday.

Scranton, Pa., Oct. 16.—President Mitchell and the others of the strike leaders who remained in the city over Sunday left for Hazleton last evening at 4:22 on the Delaware and Hudson road. Before his departure Mr. Mitchell expressed himself as highly pleased and gratified at the general courteous treatment that he had met with during his stay in Scranton. "I would like to have my headquarters here," he remarked. One who has been with Mr. Mitchell interpreted this as signifying that he is not as warmly received by the public generally as he would wish.

Mr. Mitchell declined to discuss the operators' statement of their views of the convention's outcome as conveyed to the public in the interview with President T. H. Watkins of the Temple Iron Co., but he permitted himself to say that Mr. Watkins was unfair in declaring that the men of the lower district were led by paid officers of the United Mine Workers.

He also settled effectively the dispute as to whether or not the sessions contemplate that the operators' offer must also be amended by striking off the codicil that the decrease of powder is to be computed in figuring the advance in wages.

"The advance must be a flat one," said Mr. Mitchell. "Where powder is being sold for $2.75 a keg the excessive charge will be one of the grievances that the company will be called upon to take up when the men are accorded the conferences that their respective employers agreed in the posted notices to give them on their return to work."

If Bryan Were Elected.

Should the papers announce on the morning of Nov. 7 that Bryan had carried states enough to elect him, the business world would be thrown into a condition of uncertainty, the first and perhaps the least acute stage of which would last until the inauguration of Mr. Bryan and the convening of the new Congress, which he has said will be immediately after he has been sworn in.

A Congress such as the one which Bryan's election would entail would be likely to sit from March until late in the fall. It would be almost a year after election before the busines world could form an intelligent idea as to what were to be the monetary and tariff policies of the government and what were to be its relations with the other countries of the world. During this long period business men and the people dependent on them for employment would be engaged in a guessing match as to what legislation was to be enacted.

There is nothing the business world hates so much as uncertainty. Therefore it would be well for thoughtful men, who are employers of labor or who wish to be employed, to consider what the state of the country would be for a year after Bryan was elected, and especially what it would be while a Bryan Congress was wrangling over the legislative nostrums which would be offered and debated by his long haired and wild-eyed followers.—Chicago Tribune.

Will Speak in the States.

Chairman Hanna has asked General Hastings to take the stump in Ohio, Indiana and Illinois, and Mr. Hastings has consented to deliver two addresses in each state the next to the last week in the campaign. He will be absent only about a week, and will devote the balance of his spare time to Centre county and that congressional district.

OFFICIAL PROGRAM

—OF THE—

CENTRE COUNTY FAIR.

Thursday, Oct. 18th.

9 A. M.-12 M.—Exhibitions, Stock Display, Midway, Etc.
11 A. M.—Parade of Prize Winners.
12 M.—Races called as follows

(1)	2:35 Class—Trot and Pace	Purse, $250.00.
(2)	2:27 Class—Trot and Pace	Purse, 300.00
(3)	2:18 Class—Trot and Pace	Purse, 300.00
(4)	3:00 Class—Trot and Pace—Horses owned in Centre County	Purse, 100.00.

Between races free exhibitions before grand stand of all the attractions—Elliot Brothers, Prof. Harry Smith and his Trained Dogs, with the Diving Dog.
3 P. M.—Mlle. Louise Wrence will make her daily Balloon Ascension.

Friday, Oct. 19th.

9 A. M.-12 M.—Exhibition of Prize winners and Premiums; Midway, Shows, Etc.
11 A. M.—Parade of Winners.
12 M.—Races as follows:

(1)	2:30 Class—Trot and Pace	Purse, $300.00.
(2)	Free for all—Trot and Pace	Purse, 400.00.
(3)	Running Race	Purse, 150.00.

Free attractions as on former days.
3 P. M—Daily Balloon Ascension by Mlle. Wrence.

Admission 25 Cents.

Additional Locals.

—The reunion of the Seventh Pennsylvania Cavalry will be held in Watsontown October 23 and 24.

—The Commercial Telephone company is running a line from Snow Shoe to Karthaus. They are within two miles of the latter place.

—Mrs. Ross A. Hickok received several beautiful presents Friday in cut glass and silverware. Among the number was a handsome silver tea service.

—Jonathan Miller, of Reynolds avenue, has given up his position as head miller in Cook & Greist's mill at Unionville and is at his home in this place for a much needed rest.

—A six year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Stewart Hampton died Thursday at their home near the Nail works. The burial took place Friday afternoon, interment at Roland.

—The flouring mill of Knecht Brothers at Parvin, Nittany Valley, was put in operation again Thursday, after undergoing extensive repairs. The mill is one of the most complete in this section of the State.

—The Prohibition Presidential special train is scheduled to arrive in Williamsport on October 30. Candidate Wooley and his colleagues will do their oratorical stunts in the Court House in the evening of that day.

—The Dayton Shoe company, of Williamsport, has announced that it will rebuild its shoe factory, recently destroyed by fire, erecting a six-story building instead of a four-story one as was their old establishment.

—Thursday evening Miss Rose Dusling entertained a party of friends at her home on Willowbank street. About 10 couple were present and a very pleasant evening was passed playing caroom, progressive euchre and other amusements.

—Bishop Whitaker has issued an appeal to the clergy and congregations of the Protestant Episcopal Diocese of Pennsylvania to contribute to the relief of the diocese of Texas, which has suffered such heavy losses by reason of the flood.

—The Lock Haven hospital fair is proving a great success. On last Saturday alone the receipts were $1,027. Among the contributors of money were Miss Humes and Miss Baum, of Bellefonte. The promoters are confident that they will clear $5,000 during the week.

—The capacity of the Harrison Hosiery factory at Millheim is to be increased at once. Last week the management accepted the largest contract ever known to have been closed by a factory of the capacity of the Millheim concern. As the operatives are becoming more expert their wages are advancing.

—During the past week a handsome McKinley transparency has been hung in front of the Republican headquarters in Crider's Exchange. The Democrats have also placed a transparency bearing the portraits of Bryan and Stevenson in front of their headquarters in the Reynolds bank building.

—Steps to establish an automobile omnibus line in Williamsport have been taken. An ordinance has been introduced in council for the purpose of granting an exclusive right to operate such a system. The ordinance stipulates that the company must pay 4 per cent. of the gross earnings to the city and sell three tickets for 10 cents, with right of transfer.

—George Bechdel, son of Thomas Bechdel, whose home is near Jacksonville, met with a very unfortunate accident Saturday morning at Spayd's saw mill in Nittany Valley, where he was employed. In some manner, which has not been ascertained, he almost severed his left foot at the ankle. He was taken to the Williamsport hospital.

—Hon. A. O. Furst will deliver a lecture on the Passion Play at Oberammergan in the Court House some time in the future. Proceeds for the benefit of the Pleasant View Chapel. During the judges recent trip abroad he witnessed this remarkable production and there is no one more competent to talk on this subject.

—William Frank, the boss furnaceman at the Bellefonte furnace, came near losing the sight of an eye while at work Thursday evening. They were making the ten o'clock casting when suddenly a red-hot iron flew up and struck Frank in the face badly burning him. It is reported that he can see out of the injured eye and hopes are entertained that the sight is not lost.

—During a local shower that passed over LaJose, recently, lightning struck and killed a horse and a dog belonging to G. W. Jose of that town. A crew of nine men, a team and a dog took shelter in a small shed when the lightning struck the dog and horse, but strange to say none of the men were injured beyond a slight shock. One of the men was holding the horse by the bridle when it was killed.

—Cards are out announcing the approaching marriage of Miss Minnie Thomas Brew, daughter of the late Austin Brew, to Harry Esling Fenlon, of Bellefonte, which happy event will take place Wednesday evening, Oct. 24th, at 6 o'clock at the home of the bride's brother George T. Brew, at "Brew Mawr" Oakland, Md. The cards also state that they will be at home after Nov. 12th, at Bellefonte, Pa.

ALL ARE NOW AT SEA!

Opinions Differ as to Outcome of Miner's Convention.

IT CONVENES IN SCRANTON

Strikers Likely to Ask for More Concessions from the Operators—The Latter Say These Will Not be Granted.

WHAT MITCHELL HAS TO SAY

SCRANTON, Pa., October 12.—The convention of the anthracite miners now on strike throughout the entire hard coal field in Pennsylvania will convene in this city this morning for the purpose of considering the 10 per cent. net increase in wages offered them by nearly all the mine operators in the region.

The delegates to the convention, who began arriving yesterday, have all sorts of instructions from their local unions on the proposition of the operators. It was learned that most of them now on the ground will vote to reject the 10 per cent. increase unless the operators make further concession. Many of the miners will not favor the advance until the operators give a guarantee that the increase will be kept in force for a fixed length of time; others want the union recognized before they will accept the proposition, while not a few insist upon concessions in the other grievances.

The belief is general that in the absence of any uniform instructions among the delegates, the chances of a settlement by this convention are rather slim. It is the impression of several labor leaders that at least a second convention will have to be held before any definite action will be taken looking toward an early ending of the contest.

President Mitchell's remarks at Wednesday's mass meeting in which he told the mine workers that the 10 per cent. was not satisfactory and that they ought to make concessions in the other grievances is taken by many persons as a hint to the miners to reject the mine owner's offer. Mr. Mitchell, however, denied this and said he had no intention of influencing the men one way or another. He said he was merely voicing the sentiment of himself, his colleagues and the many strikers with whom he has come in contact during the past week. In speaking of today's convention, Mr. Mitchell yesterday said.

"The miners' convention today will be one of the most remarkable labor meetings held in the history of coal mining. For the first time in over thirty years representatives of all collieries on strike will meet in convention to discuss matters of vital interest to them. The proposition submitted by the operators to advance their wages 10 per cent. will, of course, be the paramount question. The calm, conservative conduct of the men during the strike will characterize their actions today. The anthracite miners, as a result of their long years of hardship, have become thoughtful and studious and have a thorough knowledge of the mining industry in all its phases. It will undoubtedly be their desire to legislate in the interest of the miners of every section of the region. The convention will be free from passion or excitement and the miners will demonstrate to the public that they are capable of doing business as prudent business men."

The convention, as near as the United Mine Workers officials can figure, will consist of about 700 delegates. About half of this number are now here, most of them coming from the Schuylkill valley and the Hazleton region. The district headquarters were crowded all day yesterday by the visiting delegates.

Ruby Lips.

And a clear complexion, the pride of woman. Have you lost these charms through torpid liver, constipation, biliousness, or nervousness? Dr. Agnew's Liver Pills will restore them to you—40 little "Rubies" in a vial, 10 cents. Act like a charm. Never gripe.—15.

Sold by F. Potts Green.

Robb—Wasson.

A pretty wedding occurred at Johnsonburg on Tuesday of last week, the contracting parties being Charles Robb, of Romola, and Miss Bessie Wasson, of Johnsonburg. They were married at the home of the bride's parents in the presence of a number of assembled guests. A grand reception was held for the wedding couple at the home of the groom, at Romola, on Wednesday.

Do you Cough?

Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup will cure a Cough or Cold at once. Conquers Croup, Whooping-Cough and Measle-Cough without fail. Mothers praise it. Doctors prescribe it for Bronchitis, Hoarseness, Grippe, Pneumonia and Consumption. It gives quick, sure results. Price, 25 cts. Refuse the dealer's substitute; it is not as good.

Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup

Always cures when others fail.

Dr. Bull's Pills cure Constipation and Liver Troubles. 50 pills, 10 cts. Trial box, 5 cts.

EPWORTH LEAGUE CONVENTION.

Held Tuesday and Wednesday, October 9th and 10th at Howard.

A meeting long to be remembered by the Howard chapter and the Epworth Leaguers from other chapters of the fourth sub-district of Altoona, was the fourth annual convention held Tuesday and Wednesday in the M. E. church at Howard. The convention was called to order Tuesday afternoon at 2:30 by the president Geo. L. Ebbs, of Loveville. A song service conducted by W. F. Hall, began the afternoon session after which divine guidance was invoked by Rev. E. S. Latshaw of Port Matilda. Rev. A. P. Wharton delivered the address of welcome and was responded to by Rev. Wilfred P. Shriner, of Bellefonte. Rev. Edmund White, of Pleasant Gap, read an excellent paper on "The League Offensive and Defensive. Some of the visiting pastors then engaged in a discussion in which Rev. R. H. Wharton remarked that if we wish to get anything out of the convention we must put something in. This became a watchword of the convention and those who put something in were bountifully repaid.

The evening session opened with a song service and prayer. Miss Rose Hoover of Fillmore, recited a beautiful selection and Mr. Eddy, of Milesburg, and daughter displayed their musical talent in a beautiful duet. The marked feature of the evening was the lecture on "The Mission of the New Methodist Prophets" by Rev. H. C. Pardoe, D. D., of Reanovo.

Wednesday forenoon's session was opened by a song service and prayer, after which came the reports of the several vice presidents of the executive committee. The first vice president Harry Way sent in an excellent written report to the president and the second vice president, Alfred Thompson gave a good report of the mercy and help department, telling of the work that has been done, the work that can be done and the work that is to do.

The third vice president Miss Esther Gray gave a report of the literary department. The roll of the Leagues in the district was called and the majority of them were represented by at least one delegate. The delegates gave glowing reports of the work being done by the several chapters and when summed up shows that this district has a large number of young people in the army of the Lord. Miss Meda Bryan, of Milesburg, read an excellent and well prepared paper on the "Influence of Association on Character Building." The election of officers resulted as follows: Pres. Geo. L. Ebbs, 1st V. P.; Chas. Woodward, 2nd V. P.; Alfred Thompson, 3rd V. P.; Esther Gray, 4th V. P.; Edward Williams, sec.; Libbie Neff, Cor. Sec.; E. L. Williams, Treas., Anna Taylor Jr., Supt. Mrs. M. C. Buck.

Rev. R. H. Wharton, of Milesburg, ably discussed "Amusements consistent with the Christian Life." A question box was a feature of the afternoon and important questions were asked and discussed. Rev. F. W. Biddle, of Osceola, administered the Holy Communion assisted by the other pastors present.

Wednesday evening marked the closing session and after singing, prayer and a recitation by Miss Susie Pletcher, Rev. F. W. Biddle, of Osceola, gave an address on "Opportunity." He told in wonderful tones of the many opportunities of the present day and always to be prepared to grasp an opportunity when it comes your way. The reading of the several reports and a few remarks closed one of the most spirited conventions held in the fourth sub-district.

CASTORIA.

Bears the Signature of Chas. H. Fletcher. The Kind You Have Always Bought

The Foolish Calf.

When Senator Hanna spoke at Youngstown, O., recently he told a story of a calf that left its mother to run after a steer. Secretary Heath has taken up this idea and developed it into a campaign poster which very artistically depicts Sen. Hanna's idea. The calf is seen chasing the steer in the distance; the cow is in the foreground sauntering quietly home, while the boy stands with uplifted fist shaking it at the calf, saying, "you little fool, you little fool, you durned fool, you'll be sorry when supper time comes." The picture is entitled "The Foolish Calf or a Lesson to Labor," and standing by a fence in front of a cottage are a working man and a woman, the man with a full dinner pail in his hand. This poster is sure to catch on and is likely to be a good vote getter.

Upon Senator Hanna's return to Chicago it was shown to him and surprised him. He had no idea that Mr. Heath had been developing this idea.

In Other Counties.

A Jefferson county woman advertises she has 750 bushels of apples which she will sell at 10 cents per bushel on the tree.

One school teacher in Tioga county has only two pupils and another has but three pupils.

Hay buyers are paying from $10 to $12 a ton in Tioga county.

Burglars at Mill Hall.

The coal office of W. H. Mann, at Mill Hall, was entered by some unknown persons Thursday night, entrance being effected through a window. The handle of the safe was knocked off, but the safe was not opened, and consequently nothing was taken.

NOVEMBER JURORS.

Drawn to Serve at Next Session of Court November 26th.

GRAND JURORS—FIRST WEEK.

C. H. Smull, stage driver.....Miles
James Krebs, farmer.....Boggs
Wm. T. Leathers, teacher.....Howard
J. H. Hoy, farmer.....Ferguson
E. L. Irwin, merchant.....Ferguson
Christ Alexander, Vet. surgeon.....Penn
N. T. Krebs, merchant.....Ferguson
Henry Sowers, shoemaker...State College
D. C. Marks, farmer.....Harris
N. J. McCalmont, farmer.....Ferguson
W. Scott Holter, teacher.....Liberty
Elias Fink, farmer.....Penn
H. H. Osman, blacksmith.....Worth
J. Victor Royer, law student.....Gregg
Joseph Tressler, farmer.....Walker
Samuel Durst, farmer.....Potter
Isaac Harpster, farmer.....Ferguson
Levi Cowher, laborer.....Rush
John Cowher, laborer...South Philipsburg
F. P. Musser, justice.....Millheim
John R. Lee, farmer.....Potter
Jacob Swyers, coal operator...Philipsburg
John Dunlap, carpenter.....Bellefonte
F. Ishler, laborer.....Walker

TRAVERSE JURORS—FIRST WEEK.

W. O. Rearick, foundryman.Cent'e Hall
Henry Swartz, cabinet maker.Philipsburg
L. Ray Morgan, clerk.....State College
Benj. Stover, laborer.....Haines
Reuben Etters, laborer.....Burnside
John Raymond, laborer.....Spring
Isaac Gates, farmer.....Ferguson
Chas. Decker, farmer.....College
Adam Zeigler, clerk.....Harris
E. M. Boon, farmer.....Haines
J. C. Snook, farmer.....Walker
H. D. Lee, farmer.....Patton
P. A. Sellers, farmer.....Patton
W. H. Zeigler, laborer.....Miles
Henry A. Detwiler, teacher.....Miles
J. S. Showers, clerk.....Bellefonte
A. C. Thompson, teacher.....Snow Shoe
Wm. H. Brown, plumber.....Bellefonte
Daniel Cowher, laborer.....Bellefonte
John Moore, farmer.....Worth
D. R. Foreman, teacher.....Potter
John I. Taylor, thrasher.....Potter
Elmer Swartz, farmer.....Spring
Geo. Noll, farmer.....College
Daniel Flanigan, farmer.....Snow Shoe
Chester Lingle, laborer.....Philipsburg
Frank W. Hess, merchant.....Philipsburg
John Rote, laborer.....Spring
David W. Keller, laborer.....College
Chas. E. Yearick, farmer.....Marion
Robt. Hackenberg, farmer.....Penn
L. C. Corl, laborer.....College
James Johnson, farmer.....Walker
D. P. Heckman, laborer.....Gregg
Adam Brungart, farmer.....Miles
K. S. Haines, laborer.....Liberty
John F. Garthoff, teacher.....Penn
John D. Keen, farmer.....Penn
Chas. Johnstonbaugh, farmer.....Marion
Edward Osmer, laborer.....Spring
Lowell Smith, laborer.....Ferguson
P. A. Hoover, farmer.....Taylor
Elmer Bloom, saddler.....Philipsburg
Samuel Orris, painter.....Boggs
Chas. Bearly, farmer.....Miles
J. C. Brown, farmer.....Potter
Henry Bowes, R. R. laborer.....Snow Shoe

TRAVERSE JURORS—SECOND WEEK.

James Reed, farmer.....Haines
J. C. Dauberman, butcher.....Centre Hall
Edward Way, farmer.....Half Moon
Harry O. Pletcher, farmer.....Liberty
M. B. Herring, laborer.....Gregg
Thos. W. Fisher, farmer.....Union
John Hook, plasterer.....Harris
James Lorrigan, R. R. boss.....Rush
M. M. Bower, farmer.....Haines
John Speace farmer.....Boggs
Wm. Sowers, farmer.....Patton
Geo. Nearhood, laborer.....Centre Hall
Ralph Schenck, farmer.....Howard
J. H. Lutz, farmer.....Benner
Robert Strunk, laborer.....Spring
T. G. Hutchinson, laborer.....Philipsburg
Jonathan Harter, gentleman.....Millheim
H. K. Hoy, farmer.....Benner
Wm. Herlinger, clerk.....Philipsburg
W. T. Fulton, clerk.....Milesburg
F. V. Jodon, farmer.....Spring
Harvey Wert, laborer.....Gregg

Blood.

We live by our blood, and on it. We thrive or starve, as our blood is rich or poor.

There is nothing else to live on or by.

When strength is full and spirits high, we are being refreshed, bone muscle and brain, in body and mind, with continual flow of rich blood.

This is health.

When weak, in low spirits, no cheer, no spring, when rest is not rest and sleep is not sleep, we are starved; our blood is poor; there is little nutriment in it.

Back of the blood, is food, to keep the blood rich. When it fails, take Scott's Emulsion of Cod Liver Oil. It sets the whole body going again—man woman and child.

If you have not tried it, send for free sample, its agreeable taste will surprise you.

SCOTT & BOWNE, Chemists
409-415 Pearl Street, New York.
50c. and $1.00; all druggists.

NO SHADOW

Of outward misfortune can darken the smile of the loyal wife and loving mother. But when disease comes the smile slowly fades, and in its place comes the drawn face and tight closed lips which tell of the constant struggle with pain.

When the delicate womanly organism is diseased the whole body suffers; the form grows thin, and the complexion dull. The first step to sound health is to cure the diseases which undermine the womanly strength.

Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription establishes regularity, dries disagreeable drains, heals inflammation and ulceration and cures female weakness. The wonderful cures of womanly diseases effected by the use of "Favorite Prescription" place it at the front of all put-up medicines specially prepared for the use of women.

"I was troubled with female weakness for eight years, and suffered more than I can tell," writes Mrs. Gust. Moser, of Ovando, Deerlodge Co., Montana. "My disposition was affected to such an extent that to say a pleasant word to any one was almost an impossibility.

"I had two operations performed by one of the most skilled surgeons of the West, but did not get relief. Then, against my doctor's strict orders, I commenced taking Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription and 'Golden Medical Discovery,' and also followed the advice given in the Common Sense Medical Adviser.

"I continued this treatment for three months, and to-day am as healthy and well as a woman can be. I cannot thank Dr. Pierce enough for his kind letters to me."

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets cure biliousness and sick headache.

John Hoy Jr., farmer.....Walker
F. A. Foreman, teacher.....Centre Hall
Albert Lucas, laborer.....Snow Shoe
H. C. St. Clair, laborer.....Snow Shoe
John Woods, farmer.....Spring
J. W. Kerstetter, farmer.....Penn
Frank Carson, merchant.....Potter
Amos Mullen, policeman.....Bellefonte
Peter Shultz, farmer.....College
W. C. Meyer, farmer.....College
Samuel Hazel, agent.....College
J. W. Kunes, farmer.....Liberty
C. E. Bressler, carpenter.....Haines
Geo. W. Spangler, farmer.....Potter
John Hudson, laborer.....Philipsburg
Joseph Lowry, laborer.....Spring
Roland Williams, teacher.....Huston
Simon Hazard, laborer.....Snow Shoe

Fifth Regiment Totals 492 Men.

The strength of the Fifth Regiment of the National Guard of Pennsylvania on September 30, the end of the third quarter of 1900, is as follows:

One colonel, one lieutenant colonel, two majors, three adjutants, one quartermaster, one commissary, one surgeon, two assistant surgeons, one chaplain, one inspector of rifle practice, eight captains, eight first lieutenants, eight second lieutenants, three sergeant-majors, one quartermaster sergeant, one commissary sergeant, one color sergeant, one hospital steward, one principal musician, eight first sergeants, thirty-two sergeants, sixty-four corporals, sixteen musicians, and 306 privates, making a total of 492 men.

A Thousand Tongues.

Could not express the rapture of Annie E. Springer, of Philadelphia, when Dr. King's New Discovery cured her of a hacking cough that for many years had made life a burden. She says: "After all other remedies and doctors failed it soon removed the pain in my chest and I can now sleep soundly, something I can scarcely remember doing before. I feel like sounding it's praises throughout the Universe." Dr. King's New Discovery is guaranteed to cure all troubles of the Throat, Chest or Lungs. Price 50c and $1. Trial bottles free at F. Potts Green's drug store.

Suspected P. O. Robbers to be Tried in Pittsburg.

Charles O'Harra and John Malloy, the "tourists," who were arrested by Messrs. B. D. Brisbin and W. Gross Mingle at Coburn, August 29th, on suspicion of having robbed the Centre Hall postoffice the Thursday morning previous, taking all the cash and stamps amounting to several hundred dollars, will be given a hearing before the grand jury of the United States district court of Western Pennsylvania, convening at Pittsburg Monday next.

The suspected robbers were given a hearing before the U. S. Commissioners at Williamsport on September 3rd, and were bound over by that official to be brought before the grand jury of the U. S. district court.

Among the witnesses who will go to Pittsburg on Monday are Postmaster Geo. M. Boal, Jared Mowry, Joseph Lutz, Anthony Garver, Isaac Shawver, James Stahl, Geo. Bradford and Mrs. Rebecca Murray.—Centre Hall Reporter.

If all the men in Kentucky who protested against Goebelism, and declared in general terms that that robber ought to be shot, are to be hounded down as Youtsey is now being hounded down to gain the $100,000 blood money, the population of the State would be considerably lessened.

—A number of Pittsburg sportsmen came to Bellefonte Saturday on their way to the Nittany Rod and Gun Club House, to be on hand for the opening of the hunting season last Monday.

U. S. Weather Report.

In the future we will have a weather station located at this place, where a daily record will be made of the maximum and minimum temperature, and, the amount of rainfall and snow. These reports are sent to Washington, D. C., and Philadelphia, where they are carefully compiled each month and published. A similar station is located at State College under the care of Dr. Frier. Lewisburg and Lock Haven are the other nearest to this place. The weather bureau has stations of this kind located in every county and the reports are always compiled from which observations are made that prove useful to the bureau and the Agricultural Departments.

The station at this place is under the care of Fred Kurtz, who for several years kept the records at Centre Hall. He is supplied with the proper instruments for taking the measurements, and as these reports may prove of interest to many of our readers they will be published weekly as follows:

Weekly Report—Bellefonte Station.

DATE 1900	TEMPERATURE Maximum	Minimum
Oct. 1, cloudy	75	57
" 2, part cloudy	70	61
" 3, cloudy	71	61
" 4, cloudy	72	60
" 5, cloudy	73	60
" 6, clear	91	60
" 7, cloudy	86	61
" 8, clear	84	54
" 9, clear	59	41
" 10, clear	63	36

Rainfall: on 7th at night 1.22 inches: on the 7th, forenoon, .40 inch.

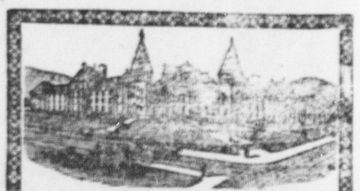
Sept. had .88 inch rain fall in this county. This is the lowest record for that month. The rainfall Sunday night, at this place was 1.22 and Monday forenoon .40 inches—total 1.62 inches, or just about double that of September.

Salt Rheum, Tetter, Eczema.

These distressing skin diseases relieved by one application. Dr. Agnew's Ointment is a potent cure for all eruptions of the skin. Jas. Gaston, Wilkesbarre, says: "For nine years I was disfigured with Tetter on my hands. Dr. Agnew's Ointment cured it." 35 cents.—16.

Sold by F. P. Green.

—After the lesson of 1896 and the one due on the 6th of November the Democrats may conclude that the next time it may be well to nominate a Democrat for the Presidency.



Get an Education

An exceptional opportunity offered to young men and young women to prepare for teaching or for business. Four regular courses; also special work in Music, Shorthand, Typewriting. Strong teaching force, well graded work, good discipline and hard study, insure best results to students of

Central State Normal School

LOCK HAVEN, Clinton Co., PA.

Handsome buildings perfectly equipped, steam heat, electric lights, abundance of pure mountain water, extensive campus and athletic grounds. Expenses low. Send for catalog.

J. P. FLICKINGER, Principal.

Central State Normal School,
LOCK HAVEN, PA.

St. Vincent College,

Beatty P. O., Westmoreland Co., Pa.

54TH YEAR.

This is a Catholic institution conducted by the Benedictine Fathers. It is 40 miles east of Pittsburg, and 2 miles from Latrobe, on the Pennsylvania railroad. The climate is healthful, the buildings large, heated by steam and lighted by electric lights. The courses of study are the Classical and Commercial, also an Elementary School for beginners.

TERMS: Board, Tuition, Washing, Mending and Physician's Fee, $200 a year.

For information or catalogue, address

THE REV. DIRECTOR.

PENNSYLVANIA COLLEGE FOR WOMEN,

East End, Pittsburg, Pa.

51st Year begins Sept. 18, 1900. Location combines beauty and space of country with city advantages. Collegiate and College Preparatory Departments. Music, Art and Physical Culture. Address Rev. Chalmers Martin, A. M., (Princeton) President.

- Regular term begins October 1st, 1900.
- Equipment most complete.
- Students received without previous dental training.
- Women admitted. Write for catalogue.

PITTSBURG DENTAL COLLEGE,
Dept. of Western University of Pennsylvania,
711 Penn Avenue, Pittsburg, Pa.

Duff's College

GIVES A BREAD-WINNING EDUCATION.

Enabling young men and women to meet the demands of this prosperous commercial age. For circulars address

P. DUFF & SONS, 8th and Liberty Sts., Pittsburg, Pa.

—Dark stables are very trying on the eyes of horses. When the animal is let out into the light, especially in the middle of the day in summer or when snow is on the ground in winter the effect is very painful. These changes, if long continued, will result in serious injury.

Railroad Guide.

PENNSYLVANIA R. R. AND BRANCHES
Schedule in effect May 28, 1900

Via Tyrone—Westward.
Leave Bellefonte 9.53 a m, arrive at Tyrone 11.10 a m, at Altoona 1 p m, at Pittsburg 5.50 p m
Leave Bellefonte 1.05 p m, arrive at Tyrone 2.15 p m, at Altoona 3.10 p m, at Pittsburg 6.55 p m
Leave Bellefonte 4.44 p m, arrive at Tyrone 6.00 p m, at Altoona 7.35 p m, at Pittsburg 11 30 p m

Via Tyrone—Eastward.
Leave Bellefonte 9.53 a m, arrive at Tyrone 11.10, at Harrisburg 2.40 p m, at Philadelphia 5.47 p m
Leave Bellefonte 1.05 p m, arrive at Tyrone 2.15 p m, at Harrisburg 6.45 p m, at Philadelphia 10.20 p m
Leave Bellefonte 4.44 p m, arrive at Tyrone 6.00 p m, at Harrisburg 10 p m

Via Lock Haven—Northward.
Leave Bellefonte 9.32 a m, arrive at Lock Haven 10.30 a m
Leave Bellefonte 1.42 p m, arrive at Lock Haven 2 43 p m, at Williamsport 3.50 p m
Leave Bellefonte 8.31 p m, arrive at Lock Haven 9.30 p m

Via Lock Haven—Eastward.
Leave Bellefonte 9.32 a m, arrive at Lock Haven 10.30 a m, leave Williamsport 12 40 p m, arrive at Harrisburg 3.15 p m, at Philadelphia at 6.23 p m
Leave Bellefonte 1.42 p m, arrive at Lock Haven 2.43 p m, arrive at Williamsport 3.50 p m, leave 4.00 p m, arrive at Harrisburg 6.55 p m, Philadelphia 10.20 p m
Leave Bellefonte 5.31 p m, arrive at Lock Haven 9 30 p m, leave Williamsport 1.05 a m, arrive at Harrisburg 3.55 a m, arrive at Philadelphia 6.52 a m

Via Lewisburg.
Leave Bellefonte at 6.40 a m, arrive at Lewisburg at 9.05 a m, Montandon 9.15 a m, Harrisburg 11.20 a m, Philadelphia 3.17 p m.
Leave Bellefonte 2.15 p m, arrive at Lewisburg 4.47, at Harrisburg 6.55 p m, Philadelphia at 10.20 p m

For full information time tables, maps, fare, &c., call on Ticket Agents, or address Thos. E. Watt, Pass. Agent Western District, No. 360 Fifth Ave., Pittsburg.
J. R. WOOD, Gen. Pass. Agt.
J. B. HUTCHENSON, General Manager

TYRONE AND CLEARFIELD RAILROAD.
Time table in effect May 28, 1900

NORTHWARD. EXPRESS.	DAY EXPRESS.	MAIL.	STATIONS.	SOUTHWARD EXPRESS.	DAY EXPRESS.	MAIL.
P M	P M	A M	Lv Ar	P M	A M	P M
7 20	3 20	8 20	..... Tyrone	8 50	11 20	6 10
7 26	3 26	8 26	...East Tyrone..	8 49	11 14	6 04
7 28	3 28	8 28	.....Tyrone S.....		11 12	6 02
7 31	3 30	8 31	..... Vail	8 45	11 09	5
7 41	3 40	8 42	...Vanscoyoc....	8 38	11 02	5
7 45	3 44	8 47	.....Gardner	8 35	10 59	5
7 54	3 53	8 57	...Mt. Pleasant..	8 27	10 51	5
8 00	3 59	9 05	..... Summit	8 20	10 44	5
8 05	4 03	9 09	...Sandy Ridge..	8 14	10 38	5 22
8 06	4 05	9 11	.....Retort	8 11	10 35	5 21
8 07	4 06	9 12	..... Powelton	8 09	10 33	5 19
8 15	4 12	9 19	..... Osceola	7 59	10 23	5 08
		9 26	.Osceola Junct		10 20	5 04
8 19	4 16	9 29	.....Boynton.....	7 55	10 17	5 01
8 23	4 20	9 32	..... Steiners	7 51	10 13	4 57
8 26	4 23	9 40	....Philipsburg...	7 50	10 12	4 56
8 31	4 29	9 45	.....Graham	7 46	10 07	4 51
8 36	4 34	9 50	..... Blue Ball.....	7 41	10 02	4 46
8 42	4 40	9 56	.....Wallaceton...	7 36	9 56	4 39
8 47	4 45	10 02	.....Bigler	7 31	9 50	4 33
8 53	4 50	10 08	....Woodland....	7 26	9 45	4 27
8 56	4 54	10 11	Mineral Spr'g's	7 23	9 42	4 23
9 00	4 58	10 15	..... Barrett	7 21	9 39	4 20
9 05	5 03	10 22	.....Leonard.....	7 17	9 35	4 15
9 09	5 07	10 26	.....Clearfield ...	7 13	9 31	4 09
9 14	5 12	10 32	....Riverview....	7 09	9 26	4 03
9 20	5 18	10 39	Susque. Bridge	7 04	9 20	3 56
9 25	5 37	10 44	..Curwensville ..	7 00	9 15	3 51
	5 43	10 50	.....Rustic.....	6 54		3 45
	5 51	10 58	.....Stronach	6 46		3 37
	5 57	11 04	....Grampian	6 40		3 31
M	P M	P M	Ar Lv	P M	A M	P M

BALD EAGLE VALLEY—PENNSYLVANIA Railroad Division. Daily except Sunday. Schedule in effect on and after May 28, 1900.

Westward. 55	53	51		50	Eastward. 52	54
p m	p m	a m		a m	p m	p m
3 45	12 10	8 55	...Lock Haven...	10 35	2 43	9 30
3 49		8 59	... Flemington ...	10 24	2 39	9 26
3 51	12 16	9 01	.....Mill Hall.....	10 22	2 37	9 24
4 02	12 26	9 12	...Beech Creek...	10 11	2 26	9 13
4 05	12 29	9 15	.....Eagleville....	10 08	2 23	9 10
4 11	12 38	9 24	..... Howard.....	9 59	2 14	9 01
4 20		9 30	...Mount Eagle...	9 53	2 08	8 55
4 25	12 48	9 34	.....Curtin.....	9 49	2 04	8 51
4 32	12 55	9 41	.....Milesburg.....	9 40	1 55	8 43
4 44	1 05	9 53	.....Bellefonte.....	9 28	1 42	8 31
4 53	1 13	10 01	.....Milesburg	9 18	1 33	8 23
4 56	1 16	10 04	...Snow Shoe Int...	9 15	1 30	8 20
5 03	1 23	10 11	.....Unionville.....	9 07	1 23	8 12
5 13	1 31	10 20	.....Julian	8 58	1 14	8 03
5 21	1 39	10 28	.....Martha.....	8 49	1 06	7 54
5 28	1 45	10 36	...Port Matilda...	8 42	1 00	7 47
5 35	1 51	10 44	.....Hannah.....	8 35	12 54	7 40
5 37		10 46	.....Fowler.....	8 33	12 52	7 38
5 40		10 49	.....Dix.....	8 30	12 50	7 35
5 46	2 01	10 56	...Bald Eagle...	8 24	12 44	7 29
5 50	2 05	11 00	.....Vail	8 20	12 40	7 25
5 54	2 09	11 04	...East Tyrone...	8 16	12 36	7 21
6 00	2 15	11 10	.....Tyrone.....	8 10	12 30	7 15
p m	p m	a m		a m	p m	p m

Nos. 50 and 55 will run daily.

LEWISBURG AND TYRONE RAILROAD
In effect May 27, 1900.

Westward.			Eastward
p m	a m		a m	p m
1 38	5 40	.....Montandon.....	9 15	4 55
1 45	6 35	..... Lewisburg	9 05	4 47
1 57	6 47	..... Vicksburg	8 53	4 35
2 05	6 55	.....Millinburg	8 48	4 27
2 16	7 07	.....Millmont.....	8 33	4 16
2 23	7 13	.....Glen Iron.....	8 26	4 08
2 51	7 40	....Paddy Mountain...	8 00	3 43
3 02	7 50	.....Coburn.....	7 50	3 32
3 08	7 57	.....Zerby.....	7 43	3 25
3 17	8 05	.....Rising Spring.....	7 35	3 17
3 23	8 11	.....Penns Cave	7 28	3 10
3 30	8 18	..... Centre Hall.....	7 22	3 02
3 35	8 24	.....Gregg	7 17	2 55
3 42	8 31	.....Linden Hall.....	7 10	2 48
3 46	8 35	.....Oak Hall.....	7 06	2 43
3 50	8 39	.....Lemont.....	7 02	2 38
3 54	8 43	..... Dale Summit	6 57	2 34
4 03	8 52	.....Pleasant Gap.....	6 48	2 24
4 06	8 55	.....Axemann.....	6 45	2 21
4 10	9 00	.....Bellefonte	6 40	2 15

SNOW SHOE BRANCH—DAILY EXCEPT Sunday—In effect July 10, 1899.

a m	STATIONS.	p m
11 25	7 27 Arrive Snow Shoe Leave	7 30 3 15
10 50	6 05 Snow Shoe Intersection	9 15 4 56
10 01	5 55 Milesburg	9 18 5 05
9 53	5 42 Leave Bellefonte Arrive	9 32 5 20

BELLEFONTE CENTRAL RAILROAD—On and after Monday, April 3rd, 1899, trains will run as follows, leaving the P. R. R. station.

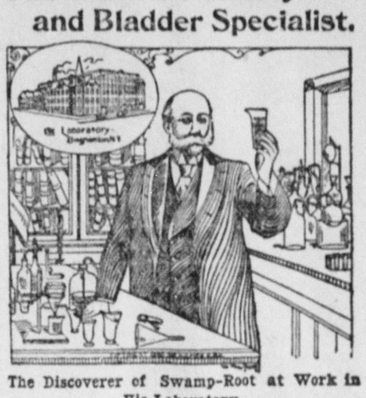
WESTWARD. College Accm. 14	5	Exp. 3		Mail. 2	EASTWARD. Exp. 4	Bellf Acc 6
a.m	p m	a m	Lv Ar	a m	p m	p m
6 30	4 15	10 30	Bellefonte	8 50	2 40	6 40
6 35	4 21	10 37	Coleville	8 40	2 25	6 30
f6 38	f4 23	f10 42	Morris	f 8 37	f2 22	f6 27
f6 43	f4 28	f10 47	Whitmer	f8 35	f2 17	f6 23
f6 46	f4 33	f10 53	Hunters	f8 31	f2 10	f6 21
f6 50	f4 36	f10 56	Filmore	f8 28	f2 06	f6 18
f6 55	f4 40	f11 02	Briarly	f8 24	f2 00	f6 14
7 00	4 43	11 05	Waddle	8 20	1 55	6 10
f7 03	f4 45	f11 08	Lambourn	f8 18	f1 52	f6 07
f7 12	f4 55	f11 20	Krumrine	f8 07	f1 37	f5 52
7 25	5 00	11 35	State College	8 00	1 30	5 45
f7 27	f5 05	f11 24	Struble	f7 45	f1 34	f5 25
f7 31	f5 10		Bloomsdor	f7 40		f5 20
7 35	5 15		Pine Grv Mills	7 35		5 15

Morning trains from Montandon, Lewisburg, Williamsport, Lock Haven and Tyrone connect with train No. 3 and 5 for State College. Afternoon trains from Montandon Lewisburg, Williamsport, Lock Haven and Tyrone connect with train No. 5 for State College. Trains from State College connect with Penna R R trains at Bellefonte for points east and west.

f stops on flag. + Daily except Sunday.

F. H. THOMAS, Sup.

The Eminent Kidney and Bladder Specialist.



The Discoverer of Swamp-Root at Work in His Laboratory.

There is a disease prevailing in this country most dangerous because so deceptive. Many sudden deaths are caused by it—heart disease, pneumonia, heart failure or apoplexy are often the result of kidney disease. If kidney trouble is allowed to advance the kidney-poisoned blood will attack the vital organs, or the kidneys themselves break down and waste away cell by cell. Then the richness of the blood—the albumen—leaks out and the sufferer has Bright's Disease, the worst form of kidney trouble.

Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root the new discovery is the true specific for kidney, bladder and urinary troubles. It has cured thousands of apparently hopeless cases, after all other efforts have failed. At druggists in fifty-cent and dollar sizes. A sample bottle sent free by mail, also a book telling about Swamp-Root and its wonderful cures. Address Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y. and mention this paper.

Strong Words by a New York Specialist.

"After years of testing and comparison I have no hesitation in saying that Dr. Agnew's Cure for the Heart is the quickest, safest, and surest known to medical science. I use it in my own practice. It relieves the most acute forms of heart ailment inside of thirty minutes and never fails."—18 Sold by F. Potts Green.

Injured at State College.

An unfortunate affair occurred at State College Saturday evening, as a result of which a student in the class of 1902, named Lucky, is lying in a critical condition. It is customary to make large quantities of ice cream at stated intervals at the dairy department of the school and Saturday was one of the evenings. The authorities, knowing the propensities of the boys, set several men to guard the cream.

The boys always find out when the cream is made and, feeling like celebrating over the news of the West Point—State football game, started for the cream. Two of the guards were captured and revolvers with blank cartridges taken from them, Another guard, however, showed fight and struck young Lucky over the head with a base ball bat.

The boy was seriously injured and life was despaired of. Dr. Hayes thought it impossible for him to live till morning. He, however, rallied some during the night, and operations were performed relieving the brain of the pressure of blood. At present he is in a precarious condition.

Ate 'em Alive.

The Princeton "Tigers" devoured the State College foot ball squad in their game at Princeton Wednesday. The State team was never in it for a minute. The Varsity eleven touched up the blue and white lads for 21 points in the first half and then put in their scrub team to finish the job. It Was finished by a score of 26-0.

Ex-President Harrison has at last broken a silence on matters political, which has been construed by many as indicative of his hostility to McKinley and the Republican party this year, and urges the defeat of Bryan. It only remains now for Ex-President Cleveland to speak his piece. Is he for Bryan or is he not? that is the question.

Fell Down a Well.

Mrs. Louis LaChance, of Houtzdale, fell through the covering of a dry well 14ft. deep last Saturday and came near dying of suffocation. She was not badly hurt by the fall, but the well was so full of gas that it almost proved the death of Mrs. LaChance and her rescuers. It was not until the fourth man was let down into the well that it was possible to get a rope around the unfortunate woman, and draw her to the surface. She remained unconscious for some time after she was rescued, but after vigorous efforts wa finally brought to.

Farmers' Day at the Nittany Rod and Gun Club.

Thursday was Farmers' Day at the Nittany Rod and Gun Club preserve at Hecla Park. About one hundred and fifty farmers and their wives sat down to a sumptuous dinner in the beautful club house. The Coleville band was present and rendered delightful music during the day.

The occasion is an annual event in the history of the club and originated in the desire of the club members to express their thanks to the farmers who have granted them hunting privileges.

BETWEEN General Grosvenor and Assistant Secretary of War Micklejohn, Mr. Bryan is pretty thoroughly convicted of intentional falsehood in charging that the Sulu treaty recognized slavery in the Philippines. The President confirmed the treaty in order to prevent war, but expressly declared that slavery was not to be considered recognized thereby.

Exhibition of Live Game.

CHICAGO, Oct. 12.—By the organization of the International Forest, Fish and Game Association, lovers of wild game animals made the first preparation for an exhibition to be held in Chicago, which will put on view and alive practically every American game animal, bird and fish, from the moose to the brook trout and the quail. Definite form was given to the plans by the organization of a society with the following officers:

President, James H. Eckels; vice president and general manager, S. E. Follett, of Boston; treasurer, Harold S. McCormick. While most of the residents of Chicago, there are several from New York and Boston who are interested in similar associations in those cities. The association proposes to hold annual exhibitions. From the success which has attended similar exhibitions in Boston and New York, it is believed that they will prove equally successful here, and that the proposed exhibit will be the most complete ever held in this country.

What An Ink Blot Did.

An ink blot in the right place is worth $115,000 according to a decision made by a jury in a Chicago court room. The case was one involving the possession of the old McCaffery farm, at Seventy-first street and Western avenue. Montville W. Howard brought suit to recover the property, claiming title under a deed said to have been given him by McCaffery in 1893. The Illinois Trust and Saving bank contested the suit, claiming that the deed was spurious. Handwriting experts testified that the signature on the instrument was genuine, but that the body of the deed had been eaten away by chemicals and the description of the property altered after the signature. The witnesses made it clear to the jury that the body of the instrument had been written after the blot which had been made at the time the original deed was drawn. Judgement in favor of the parties now in possession was given.

—A grain of sand in the eye can cause excruciating agony. A grain of pepper in place of the grain of sand intensifies the torment. The pain is not confined to the organs affected. The whole body feels the shock of that little irritating particle. It is so when there is any derangement or disorder of the delicate womanly organs. The disorder may seem trivial but the whole body feels it. The nervous system is disordered. There are fretfulness, irritability, sullenness and depression of spirits. The general health of woman depends on the local health of the organs peculiarly feminine. Remove the drains, ulcerations, bearing down pains, and other afflictions of woman and the whole body feels the benefit. Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is a specific for the diseases that undermine the strength of women. It is free from opium, cocaine and other narcotics, poisons, which enter into many other preparations for woman's use. It makes weak women strong and sick women well.

WHEN the Tammany orators become oppressive, just throw some ice water at them. It will shut them up quicker than anything else.

GALVESTON can't complain, of course, but the chances are that she is getting pretty tired of the good advice that accompanies every donation to her relief fund.

For Over Fifty Years.

Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup has been used for over fifty years by millions of mothers for their children while teething with perfect success. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays all pain, cures wind colic, and is the best remedy for diarrhoea. It will relieve the poor little sufferer immediately. Sold by all druggists in all parts of the world. Twenty-five cents a bottle. Be sure and ask for Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup" and take no other kind.

—One of the amusing things of the present campaign is the statement made by Mr. Bryan, in his Fort Wayne speech, that his military experience had taught him that the life of a soldier was a dangerous one.

Why He Smiles.

He often gets thirsty at home when it don't suit to run down to GREEN'S. We advised him to keep a bottle of "WELCH'S PURE GRAPE JUICE" in the house—Then with a little broken ice and (if preferred) a little sugar and lemon juice, he can make a drink that equals the fabled "Nectar of the Gods." It is simply delicious—is a splendid drink for invalids, being a nutritious tonic and is free from alcohol. Do you want to smile? Try a bottle—we have it at 10, 20, 35 and 60c, or at special price by the case—at Green's Pharmacy.

A Greater Chicago.

That is the title of a pamphlet "respectfully inscribed to the Mayor and City Council of Chicago," by Alfred Bierly, formerly of Rebersburg. The pamphlet is highly interesting and solves many of the problems of great import to Chicago, and deals with the following subjects:

1. How best to readjust the steam railroad traffic that it will no longer practically surround the business centre and prevent the growth of the latter.
2. How to solve the tunnel and traction problems.
3. How to relieve the congested condition of the city's business centre.
3. How to inaugurate and consummate plans to permanently hold and comfortably conduct the vast business pertaining to the lake commerce.

CASTORIA.
Bears the Signature of Chas. H. Fletcher. The Kind You Have Always Bought

Professional Cards.

A. A. DALE.
ATTORNEY AT LAW.
Office over Centre County Bank, corner Spring and High streets, Bellefonte, Pa.

W. F. Reeder. H. C. Quigley
REEDER & QUIGLEY.
ATTORNEYS AT LAW.
Office on Allegheny street, 2 doors north of office formerly occupied by the late firm of Yocum & Hastings, Bellefonte, Pa

C. M. Bower. Ellis L. Orvis.
ORVIS, BOWER & ORVIS.
ATTORNEYS AT LAW.
Office in Eagle Block, Bellefonte, Pa.

HUGH S. TAYLOR.
ATTORNEY AT LAW.
No. 24 Temple Court. All manner of legal business attended promptly.

Dr. Humphreys'
Specifics cure by acting directly upon the disease, without exciting disorder in any other part of the system.

NO.	CURES.	PRICES.
1	Fevers, Congestions, Inflammations.	.25
2	Worms, Worm Fever, Worm Colic...	.25
3	Teething, Colic, Crying, Wakefulness	.25
4	Diarrhea, of Children or Adults.....	.25
7	Coughs, Colds, Bronchitis.....	.25
8	Neuralgia, Toothache, Faceache.....	.25
9	Headache, Sick Headache, Vertigo...	.25
10	Dyspepsia, Indigestion, Weak Stomach.	.25
11	Suppressed or Painful Periods.....	.25
12	Whites, Too Profuse Periods.....	.25
13	Croup, Laryngitis, Hoarseness.....	.25
14	Salt Rheum, Erysipelas, Eruptions...	.25
15	Rheumatism, Rheumatic Pains.....	.25
16	Malaria, Chills, Fever and Ague.....	.25
19	Catarrh, Influenza, Cold in the Head	.25
20	Whooping-Cough.....	.25
27	Kidney Diseases.....	.25
28	Nervous Debility.....	1.00
30	Urinary Weakness, Wetting Bed.....	.25
77	Grip, Hay Fever.....	.25

Dr. Humphreys' Manual of all Diseases at your Druggists or Mailed Free.
Sold by druggists, or sent on receipt of price. Humphreys' Med. Co., Cor. William & John Sts., New York.

REVIVO RESTORES VITALITY
Made a Well Man of Me.
THE GREAT FRENCH REMEDY
produces the above results in 30 days. It acts powerfully and quickly. Cures when all others fail. Young men will regain their lost manhood, and old men will recover their youthful vigor by using REVIVO. It quickly and surely restores Nervousness, Lost Vitality, Impotency, Nightly Emissions, Lost Power, Failing Memory, Wasting Diseases, and all effects of self-abuse or excess and indiscretion, which unfits one for study, business or marriage. It not only cures by starting at the seat of disease, but is a great nerve tonic and blood builder, bringing back the pink glow to pale cheeks and restoring the fire of youth. It wards off Insanity and Consumption. Insist on having REVIVO, no other. It can be carried in vest pocket. By mail, $1.00 per package, or six for $5.00, with a positive written guarantee to cure or refund the money. Book and advise free. Address Royal Medicine Co., 269 Dearborn St. CHICAGO, ILL.
For sale by F. Potts Green.

50 YEARS' EXPERIENCE
PATENTS
TRADE MARKS
DESIGNS
COPYRIGHTS &c.
Anyone sending a sketch and description may quickly ascertain our opinion free whether an invention is probably patentable. Communications strictly confidential. Handbook on Patents sent free. Oldest agency for securing patents.
Patents taken through Munn & Co. receive special notice, without charge, in the Scientific American.
A handsomely illustrated weekly. Largest circulation of any scientific journal. Terms, $3 a year; four months, $1. Sold by all newsdealers.
MUNN & Co. 361 Broadway, New York
Branch Office, 625 F St., Washington, D. C.

FITS STOPPED FREE
Permanently Cured by DR. KLINE'S GREAT NERVE RESTORER
No Fits after first day's use. Consultation, personal or by mail; treatise and $2 TRIAL BOTTLE FREE to Fit patients who pay expressage only on delivery. Permanent Cure, not only temporary relief, for all Nervous Disorders, Kollepsy, Spasms, St. Vitus' Dance, Debility, Exhaustion. DR. R. H. KLINE, Ld., 931 Arch Street, Philadelphia. Founded 1871.

Send Stamp for Catalogue.
SHOT GUNS, RIFLES, REVOLVERS, Loaded Shells.
Boxing Gloves, Striking Bags, Cameras, Bicycles, Hunting Suits, Seines, Tents, Fishing Tackle.
JOHNSTONS, Great Western Gun Works, 628 Smithfield Street, PITTSBURG, PA.

"DIRT DEFIES THE KING." THEN
SAPOLIO
IS GREATER THAN ROYALTY ITSELF.

If You Wish to Become

A Chemist, A Teacher,
An Engineer, A Lawyer,
An Electrician, A Physician,
A Scientific Farmer, A Journalist.

In short, if you wish to secure a training that will fit you well for any honorable pursuit in life,

The Pennsylvania State College

Offers Exceptional Advantages.

TUITION IS FREE IN ALL COURSES.

TAKING EFFECT IN SEPTEMBER 1900, the General Courses have been extensively modified, so as to furnish a much more varied range of electives, after the Freshman Year, than heretofore, including History; the English, French German, Spanish, Latin and Greek Languages and Literatures; Psychology; Ethics; Pedagogics, and Political Science. These courses are especially adapted to the wants of those who seek either the most thorough training for the Profession of Teaching, or a general College Education.

The courses in Chemistry, Civil, Electrical, Mechanical and Mining Engineering are among the very best in the United States. Graduates have no difficulty in securing and holding positions.

YOUNG WOMEN are admitted to all courses on the same terms as Young Men.

The FALL SESSION opens September 12, 1900.

For SPECIMEN EXAMINATION PAPERS or for CATALOGUE giving full information respecting courses of study, expenses, etc., and SHOWING POSITIONS HELD BY GRADUATES, address

THE REGISTRAR,
STATE COLLEGE, CENTRE CO., PA.

SAVE YOUR STAR TIN TAGS

"Star" tin tags (showing small stars printed on under side of tag). "Horse Shoe," "J. T.," "Good Luck," "Cross Bow," and "Drummond" Natural Leaf Tin Tags are of equal value in securing presents mentioned below, and may be assorted. Every man, woman and child can find something on the list that they would like to have, and can have FREE!

	TAGS.		TAGS.
1	Match Box..... 25	22	Six each, Genuine Rogers' Knives and Forks, best plated goods..... 500
2	Knife, one blade, good steel..... 25	23	Clock, 8-day, Calendar, Thermometer, Barometer..... 500
3	Scissors, 6½ inches..... 25	24	Gun case, leather, no better made..... 500
4	Child's Set, Knife, Fork and Spoon... 25	25	Revolver, automatic, double action 32 or 38 caliber..... 600
5	Salt and Pepper Set, one each, quadruple plate on white metal..... 50	26	Tool Set, not playthings, but real tools 650
6	French Briar Wood Pipe..... 25	27	Toilet Set, decorated porcelain, very handsome..... 800
7	Razor, hollow ground, fine English steel..... 50	28	Remington Rifle No. 4, 22 or 32 caliber 800
8	Butter Knife, triple plate, best quality 60	29	Watch, sterling silver, full jeweled... 1000
9	Sugar Shell, triple plate, best quality 60	30	Dress Suit Case, leather, handsome and durable..... 1000
10	Stamp Box, sterling silver..... 70	31	Sewing Machine, first class, with all attachments..... 1500
11	Knife, "Keen Kutter," two blades... 75	32	Revolver, Colt's, 38-caliber, blued steel..... 1500
12	Carver Knife, "Keen Kutter," 8-in blade..... 75	33	Rifle, Colt's, 16-shot, 22-caliber..... 1500
13	Shears, "Keen Kutter," 8 inch..... 75	34	Guitar (Washburn), rosewood, inlaid 2000
14	Nut Set, Cracker and 6 Picks, silver plated..... 60	35	Mandolin, very handsome..... 2000
15	Base Ball, "Association," best quality 100	36	Winchester Repeating Shot Gun, 12 gauge..... 2000
16	Alarm Clock, nickel..... 150	37	Remington, double-barrel, hammer Shot Gun, 10 or 12 gauge..... 2000
17	Six Genuine Rogers' Teaspoons, best plated goods..... 150	38	Bicycle, standard make, ladies or gents..... 2500
18	Watch, nickel, stem wind and set... 200	39	Shot Gun, Remington, double-barrel, hammerless..... 3000
19	Carvers, good steel, buckhorn handles 200	40	Regina Music Box, 15½ inch Disc..... 5000
20	Six Genuine Rogers' Table Spoons, best plated goods..... 250
21	Six each, Knives and Forks, buckhorn handles..... 250

THE ABOVE OFFER EXPIRES NOVEMBER 30TH, 1900.

BEAR IN MIND that a dime's worth of

STAR PLUG TOBACCO

will last longer and afford more pleasure than a dime's worth of any other brand.

MAKE THE TEST!

Send tags to CONTINENTAL TOBACCO CO., St. Louis, Mo.

NEW YORK TRI-WEEKLY TRIBUNE.

ALL THE NEWS! Three Times a Week.

The first number of the THE TRI-WEEKLY TRIBUNE was published November 20th, 1899. The immediate and cordial welcome accorded it from Eastern and Western states insured an unexampled success.

It is published on Monday, Wednesday and Friday, and each number is a complete, up-to-date daily newspaper, with all important news of the world up to hour of going to press.

Contains all striking news features of THE DAILY TRIBUNE. Special war dispatches, domestic and foreign correspondence, short stories, humorous illustrations, political cartoons, industrial information, fashion notes, agricultural matters, comprehensive and reliable financial and market reports.

Profusely illustrated with half-tones and portraits of prominent people. Regular subscription price $1.50 per year, but we furnish it as a trial subscription

WITH THE "REPUBLICAN" 1 YEAR FOR $2.50.

NEW YORK WEEKLY TRIBUNE

For nearly sixty years the leading national family newspaper for progressive farmers and villagers.

Its Agricultural Department is unexcelled, and Market Reports an authority for the country.

Contains all the news of the nation and world, with interesting and instructive reading for every member of every family on every farm and in every village in the United States.

Regular subscription price $1.00 per year, but we furnish it as a trial subscription

With "THE REPUBLICAN" 1 Year for $1.25.

Send all orders to

THE REPUBLICAN, Bellefonte, Pa..

YOU CAN PATENT

anything you invent or improve; also get CAVEAT, TRADE-MARK, COPYRIGHT or DESIGN PROTECTION. Send model, sketch, or photo for free examination and advice.
BOOK ON PATENTS FREE. No Atty's fee before patent.
Write to C. A. SNOW & CO.
Patent Lawyers. WASHINGTON, D.C.

PATENTS DESIGNS TRADE-MARKS AND COPYRIGHTS OBTAINED
ADVICE AS TO PATENTABILITY FREE
Notice in "Inventive Age"
Book "How to obtain Patents"
Charges moderate. No fee till patent is secured. Letters strictly confidential. Address,
E. G. SIGGERS, Patent Lawyer, Washington, D. C.

MONEY To PATENT Good Ideas may be secured by our aid. Address, THE PATENT RECORD, Baltimore, Md.
Subscriptions to The Patent Record $1.00 per annum.

The Bellefonte Republican

The Best Advertising Medium in Central Pennsylvania.

A forty-eight column paper devoted to the interests of the Republican party. Published at Bellefonte, Pa., at $1.00 per annum.

BY WILBUR F. HARRIS.

RATES OF ADVERTISING.

SPACE OCCUPIED.	3m	6m	1y
One inch (12 lines this type)	$ 5	$ 8	$ 12
Two inches	7	12	15
Three inches	10	15	20
Four inches	11	17	25
Quarter column	12	20	30
Half column	20	35	55
One column	35	55	100

All advertisements, whether displayed or blank lines, measured by lines of this type.

All advertisements due after the first insertion.

Special notices inserted in our local columns at 20 cents per line for each insertion unless otherwise agreed, by the month, quarter or year.

Editorial notices, in our local columns, 25 cents per line for each insertion.

Professional or Business Cards, not exceeding 10 lines this type, $8 per annum.

All advertisements for a less term than three months 20 cents per line for the first three insertions, and 5 cents per line for each additional insertion.

Advertisers, and especially Advertising Agents, are respectfully informed that no notice will be taken of orders to insert advertisments at less rates than the above, nor will any notice be given to orders of parties unknown to the publisher, unless accompanied by the cash.

WILBUR F. HARRIS.

REPUBLICAN NATIONAL TICKET.

PRESIDENT,
WILLIAM McKINLEY, of Ohio.
VICE PRESIDENT,
THEODORE ROOSEVELT, of New York.

REPUBLICAN STATE TICKET.

AUDITOR GENERAL,
EDW'D B. HARDENBERGH, of Wayne.

CONGRESSMEN-AT-LARGE,
GALUSHA A. GROW, of Susquehanna.
ROBT. S. FOERDERER, of Philadelphia.

ELECTORS-AT-LARGE,
WM. H. SAYEN, of Delaware.
CLARENCE WOLF, of Philadelphia.
FRANK H. BUHL, of Delaware.
A. B. ROBERTS, of Montgomery.

REPUBLICAN COUNTY TICKET.

CONGRESSMAN,
A. A. CLEARWATER, of Elk County.

ASSEMBLYMEN,
WILLIAM M. ALLISON, of Spring Mills,
JOHN K. THOMPSON, of Philipsburg.

JURY COMMISSIONER,
WILLIAM ROBB, of Romola.

County Committee.

The following named gentlemen compose the Republican Executive Committee of Centre County for the year 1900.

WILBUR F. REEDER, Chairman, Bellefonte.
Henry C. Quigley, Secretary, Bellefonte.
Harry Keller, }
G. W. Reese, } Ass't Sec's, Bellefonte.
J. Thomas Mitchell }

DISTRICT.	NAME	ADDRESS.
Bellefonte, N W	P. C. Williams	Bellefonte
" S W	N E Robb,	"
" W W	Earle C Tuten,	"
Centre Hall boro	W O Rearick	Centre Hall
Milesburg "	Alfred S Smith	Milesburg
Millheim "	J Spigelmyer,	Millheim
Howard "	Robert Cook, Jr.,	Howard
Philipsburg	W C T Eryberger	Philipsburg
"	Geo E Lamb	Philipsburg
"	P Howard Sinker	"
South Philipsburg	Thos Crowmover,	Ph'sburg
College boro	Philip D Foster	State College
Unionville Boro	Howard Holzworth	Fleming
Benner twp, N P	David Rothrock	Bellefonte
Benner twp, S P	David Rhinesmith	"
Boggs Twp N P	Thos. Malone	Yarnell
Boggs Twp E P	H R Curtin	Roland
Boggs Twp W P	Scott Walters	Milesburg
Burnside Twp	D G Stewart	Moshannon
College Twp	Wm. Thompson, Jr	Lemont
Curtin "	R C Daley	Romola
Ferguson Twp E P	A Stine Walker, P G Mills
Ferguson " W P	J H Musser	Pa. Furnace
Gregg " N P	Isaac Smith	Farmers Mills
Gregg " E P	Jos. K. Bitner	Penn Hall
Gregg " W P	Wm Allison	Spring Mills
Haines " E P	J C F Motz	Woodward
Haines " W P	Jas S Weaver	Aaronsb'g
Half Moon "	C W Hunter	Stormstown
Harris "	Scott Bricker	Boalsburg
Howard "	John Turner	Mt. Eagle
Huston "	G G Fink	Julian
Liberty "	W S Holter	Blanchard
Marion "	Samuel Aley	Walker
Miles E P	M W Adams	Livonia
" M. P.	Thos E Boyer	Rebersburg
" W. P.	Reuben Grimm	Madisonburg
Patton	John W Balsor	Benore
Penn "	T B Motz	Coburn
Potter Twp N P	James Stahl	Centre Hall
Potter " S P	Alexander McCoy	Pot'rs Mills
Rush " N P	David Kinkead	Philipsburg
Rush " S P	Isaiah Woodle,	Sandy Ridge
Snow Shoe E P	W A Sickle	Snow Shoe
" W P.	Thos. D. Weaver	Moshannon
Spring Twp N P	Anthony Dusling	Bellefonte
Spring " S P	John Bilger	Pleasant Gap
Spring " W P	William Hampton	Bellefonte
Taylor "	A R Price	Hannah Furnace
Union "	E P Barton	Fleming
Worth "	J C Woodring	Port Matilda
Walker " M P.	Irvin Yarnell	Hublersburg
" " E P.	L E Rogers	Nittany
" " W.P.	Christ Decker	Zion

EDITORIAL.

COLONEL BRYAN says the ice trust is really a local affair. So is Hades.

NATURALLY, Mr. Bryan felt a good deal at home in the Indiana "gas" belt.

THE wild predictions indulged in by Bryan and his rooters show that despair has smothered their judgment.

WHY doesn't Chairman Jones get Senator Tillman to keep quiet until after the election? He is queering Bryan's anti-imperialism issue right along.

IN Kentucky, when a man registers, he states to which party he belongs. Last year the Louisville registration showed a Democratic majority of 2202; this year it shows a Democratic minority of 2876. This is decidedly encouraging to friends of honest government.

DO NOT SHIRK YOUR DUTY.

It is to be hoped that the voters of Centre County, particularly those of the Republican faith, will not allow themselves to be prejudiced against the Republican county legislative ticket, as a whole or in part, by the absurd and ridiculous representations of the Democratic press and party henchmen that our candidates, Allison and Thompson, are the creatures of a political dictator; that their nomination was secured by a deceptive political stratagem; that their election is desired simply to accomplish the personal political ambitions and designs of one or more men among the Republican party leaders in the county.

The Democratic editors and the Democratic leaders realize that if the Republicans poll a united party vote for their ticket the Democratic candidates will fall by the wayside. This, of course, our friends the enemy will strive to prevent at all hazards. They know very well that an earnest and loyal adherence to the Republican "compromise" legislative ticket, by the Republicans of the county, regardless of factional sympathy or affiliation, will elect Allison and Thompson. To obstruct and preclude this, to them, direful calamity they are doing their utmost to rekindle the fires of factionalism in the camp of their Republican adversaries.

A Democratic victory in Centre County this fall depends entirely upon the temper and spirit of the Republicans. If they will unanimously stand by their ticket, Republican success is assured. It is the opinion of those who have carefully investigated the political situation in the county that the Republicans have victory within easy grasp and to possess it only a united effort is required.

To the Republicans of the county we say with all earnestness, Do not be dissuaded from your duty to your party and its candidates by the silly and false vaporings of an hostile press. Do not permit Democratic invendo and slurs to accomplish the purpose for which they are invented. Do not withhold your support from an honest and commendable effort on the part of your fellow Republicans to restore peace and harmony in the ranks of the Republican party of Centre County.

The opportunity for us to get together and work together and vote together, in one accord as in days gone by, has come to us; do not let us reject it. In Messrs. Allison and Thompson we have candidates who are eminently worthy of our support and entitled, by reason of their nomination secured without contest or contention, to our suffrage. They are the representatives of a policy of party harmony and reconciliation. They solicit your indorsement and your votes, Republicans of Centre County, not as the candidates of opposing factions, not as the puppets of a political ring, not as the partisans of a factional leader, but as the regularly chosen agents of concerted Republican movement for harmony and concord.

The election of Allison and Thompson will undoubtedly result in a complete unification of our party. It will place us in a position to regain at future elections the county offices which have heretofore been presided over by Republicans and will give us the power to obtain control of those which we have been unable in the past to wrest from our opponents. The future strength and influence of the Republican party in Centre County depends upon the action of its party members at the polls next month.

If you would have your party become a controlling factor in the government of your county, a dominant political power at each succeeding election you will cast your vote for Allison and Thompson, for in so doing you will vote to obliterate factionalism from the party ranks and vote to make harmony and union permanent and lasting.

MR SULZER is to help Mr. Bryan on his Western tour. This is the same Mr. Sulzer who took up a collection for the suffering Boer widows and orphans and blew it in on wine suppers and "sich."

HONEST AND TRUSTWORTHY, PATRIOTIC AND LOYAL.

In this issue of the REPUBLICAN we publish in brief a sketch of the life and character of Colonel A. A. Clearwater, of Wilcox, Elk County, the Republican candidate for Congress from the 28th District. It reviews a career that its subject may well be proud of and it illustrates a character that is typical of the highest standard of true and patriotic American citizenship.

In Colonel Clearwater the voters of Centre County have a candidate for Congress who is deserving of their confidence and trust and whose splendid war record and exemplary deportment throughout an industrious and active life commands admiration and respect.

As a Republican, staunch and true to the traditions of his party, Colonel Clearwater can be relied upon to give his voice and influence to the support of those principles of Republicalism which are the noble heritages of Lincoln, Grant and Blaine and which have found in President McKinley an honest and conscientious exponent. As a veteran of the Civil war, he will be ever ready and willing to give his best efforts in the interest of his old comrades, in whose sufferings and privations, whose successes and victories he shared. As a man whose life and character is beyond reproach and synonymous with honesty, uprightness, integrity and virtue he will if elected serve his constituents with a single purpose, that of keeping in mind their interests and welfare and acting in accord with their will and desire.

CANNOT ACCEPT BRYANISM.

Evidences are accumulating that the German vote will remain with the Republicans, with which it has been for years. One by one prominent Germans in different parts of the country have refused to support free silver on any pretence, and now the "Staats-Zeitung," of New York, the most influential German newspaper in the United States, has declared for McKinley. The significance of this action is not decreased by the paper's frank statement of reluctance in taking this stand. The "Staats-Zeitung" is a Democratic paper.

This year, in addition to long standing differences, the "Staats-Zeitung" found the expansion issue a stumbling block. It has been steadfastly opposed to the holding of the Philippines, and it says it is "fully aware of the fact that Mr. McKinley's election will be interpreted and exploited as a victory for 'imperialism,' even if it has been caused by the distrust of Mr. Bryan's teachings and character." Yet so dangerous does it regard Bryan that it is willing to help return to power the party with which it does not agree, and see the result proclaimed as a popular approval of a policy which it deeply distrusts. Could anything testify more strongly to fear of Mr. Bryan's doctrines as a serious and present danger.

BRYAN AS A PROPHET.

The following postal card was recently addressed to "W. J. Bryan, care of 'American Economist,' 135 West 23d St., New York City:"

PITTSBURG, Pa., Oct. 1, 1900.

Dear Sir—Here is one of your many predictions of '96: "If McKinley and the Republican party are successful and put in power for the next four years, wages will be decreased, hard times will come upon us all over the land, the price of wheat will go down and the price of gold will go up. Mortgages on our homes will be foreclosed by the money lenders; shops and factories will be closed. We will export no goods, and we will import from foreign lands all the goods we use; thus will ruin, want and misery be with us."

Above has proved to be absolutely false.

Are your revised predictions for this campaign any more likely to come true?

Yours truly,
A HUSTLING AMERICAN.

As a prophet Mr. Bryan has made himself the laughing stock of all levelheaded people. As a prophet he has solved the problem of how to be wrong first, last and all the time.

VICTORY WILL REWARD A UNITED EFFORT.

From an authentic source comes the information that the poll of the county recently concluded by the Republican County Committee gives the most encouraging and auspicious results that have ever attended a previous poll made by the Republican county organization. This clearly demonstrates that the sentiment and state of mind of the voters in Centre County is largely with the Republican cause in the present political argument.

Our people have not forgotten, and are not likely to forget, the lesson they learned at the Democratic school of adversity and hard times during the four long and disastrous years of Cleveland's second term when the executive and legislative branches of our government were in the control of the Democratic party, nor are they apt to be unmindful or heedless of the benefits and advantages of an unparalleled prosperity that has been their good fortune since the restoration of Republican power in 1896. They voted for prosperity when they voted for McKinley four years ago, and they got it.

To presume, even for a moment that the intelligent and thoughtful citizen of Centre County will vote for a return of those dark days of industrial paralysis, business stagnation and financial depression, which always goes hand in hand with Democratic rule, is to reckon at a very low estimate the standard of intellectual capacity and discernment of the average citizen of our county. Happily, the result of the Republican poll of the county justifies the assertion that our people are alive to their country's interests and their individual necessities. They know that President McKinley's administration has been one of great blessing and profit to them and they are not going to permit Mr. Bryan's free trade fallacies, free silver delusions, and imperialistic bunkum to allure them from their allegiance to the party that delivered them from the clutches of Democratic misfortune, distress and hard times.

Four years ago McKinley carried Centre County by a majority that reached nearly five hundred and this fall he is going to do it again. This is no idle assertion. It is a fact based upon calculations that are reliable and trustworthy. These calculations, however, are computed upon the support of a unanimous Republican vote at the polls. There must be no stay-at-homes. Every Republican voter in the county must do his duty and see to it that his neighbors do likewise. Take time to vote and take time to have others vote. You owe it to your party and its candidates, yourself and your interests to do this. Don't neglect your obligations. Vote when election day dawns and vote the straight Republican ticket. Every man on the ticket is worthy of your support and suffrage and every man elected will serve you well and faithfully.

THE election of Allison and Thompson will mean the permanent alliance of the factions in the Republican party in Centre County. Their defeat will deter for years the union of a divided party. The opportunity to cast aside factionalism and pull together is at hand. Will you ignore it by withholding your support from the compromise ticket?

WETZEL and Kepler are the candidates of a convention whose resolutions contained a bitter denunciation of President McKinley and a wholesale assault upon the Republican party. Can loyal and true Republicans consistently vote for men who are opposed to every principle and doctrine of Republicanism?

MR. BRYAN'S determination not to be a candidate for a second term is by no means unreasonable. However, it will not preclude his running again in 1904 for a first term.

CONGRESSMAN CUMMINGS, of New York, says the election is a toss-up. That's pretty mild for a Democratic prediction.

DEMOCRATIC RECORD ON THE TRUST QUESTION.

Every line of legislation now on the statute books of the United States directed against trusts and unlawful trade combinations was placed there by the REPUBLICANS. That there is not more stringent law against them is the fault of the DEMOCRATIC party. The last occasion on which the parties, as represented in Congress, went on record on the trust question was on June 1, 1900, a little more than four months ago. On that day a final vote was taken on a constitutional amendment to grant Congress power to "define, regulate, prohibit and dissolve trusts, monopolies and combinations, whether existing in the form of corporations or otherwise." Now let us see how the Democrats deported themselves when brought face to face with an opportunity to abridge or remove the trust evil which they are today denouncing and crediting to the Republican party.

It requires a two thirds vote of Congress to submit a constitutional amendment to the State Legislatures. The question to so submit the "trust" constitutional amendment was lost by a vote of 154 yeas to 132 nays. Of the yeas, 149 were REPUBLICANS and only 5 were DEMOCRATS. The five were Campbell, of Montana; Naphen and Taylor, of Massachusetts; Scudder, of New York, and Sibley, of Pennsylvania. Of the 132 nays, only TWO were REPUBLICANS, Lond, of California, and McCall, of Massachusetts. Richardson, Lentz, Sulzer, Ruppert, Salmon and all the other professional "trust killers" voted Nay. They declined to give Congress the power to grapple with the Trusts. The Democrats indulged in spasms of virtue for two days denouncing trusts and then voted to continue them. This is a fair sample of Democratic consistency and honesty of purpose.

In one of Mr. Bryan's recent speeches he gave the Republican remedy—granting to Congress power to deal with the question—as the final one he would adopt, in case he was elected and all other means failed. In other words, Mr. Bryan admits the value of the Republican idea, but wants to experiment with other measures first. He has not said what those measures are to be.

Some trusts operate all over the country; others, like the New York Democratic Ice Trust, operates in a single city. The requisite power to reach each and all and bring them within the Federal law, was urged by the Republicans and denied by a margin of 36 votes, all Democratic. Denouncing is one thing. Doing is another. Mr. Bryan's trust denunciations, in view of his party's record, promise no better than the prophesies he made four years ago; and as a prophet Mr. Bryan has not succeeded.

There is another chapter in the record of the Democratic party on the trust question in the last congressional session that illustrates how insincere and deceitful is that party in its relation to the "trust" issue. Representative Richardson, of Tennessee, one the Democratic leaders in the last House, tried to assist the Sugar Trust by offering a joint resolution to admit Cuban and Porto Rican sugar free of duty. The remission of that duty would have amounted to about $25,000,000 a year, and the Sugar Trust would have been benefited to the amount of at least $15,000,000 per annum. The controller of the Sugar Trust is Henry O. Havemeyer, a Democrat. Mr. Richardson's proposed gift to his friend Havemeyer and the Sugar Trust was nipped in the bud in the Ways and Means Committee of the House. This was done by the REPUBLICAN members of the Committee.

It was also proposed by Senator Jones in the Senate, Democratic National Chairman and Bryan's manager, to return the duties paid on Porto Rican sugar and molasses, not to the Porto Ricans, but to the persons who paid these duties. This amounted at the time to $1,487,866. Had Senator Jones' scheme succeeded the American Sugar Refining Company and A. S. Lassalles & Co., a part of the same concern, would have received a direct gift, by the aid of their Democratic champion and friend, Senator Jones, of $1,250,774. This is the first instance on record where a direct gift was intended to be made to a trust, and the Democratic National Chairman, Senator James K. Jones, wished to make it. This little project was also prevented by the Republicans.

All these facts are printed in the Congressional Record and are a part of American history. Just keep them in mind. They will aid you in forming a just and accurate estimate of the sincerity and genuineness of the Democratic opposition to trusts and unlawful trade combinations.

A SHORT LIST OF McKINLEY ORATORS.

It isn't necessary for President McKinley to make addresses during this campaign—conditions are so different from what they were four years ago. Speeches are being made for the Republican standard bearer by Every toot of the factory whistle.

Every blow of the hammer.
Every cachug of the river tug.
Every whirr of the buzzsaw.
"Every cry of "More mort."
Every click of a type.
Every drop of paint that happens to fall on the sidewalk.
Every squeak of a new pair of shoes.
Every clang of the locomotive bell.
Every rumble of the loaded dray.
Every fleck of factory soot that smacks you in the face; and, above all,
By the bright, contented faces of the thronging thousands on the way to work—steady work—these fine October mornings! — Cincinnati Times Star.

HON. H. E. GRIMM, Democratic candidate for Congressman-at-Large, and Hon. A. B. Osborne, a distinguished Bryanite from Erie County, held forth in the Court House last night at the monster (?) Democratic mass meeting and entertained an audience of local Bryanized Democrats with a choice line of Democratic sophistries. It is needless to remark that President McKinley was eulogized by the orators with becoming earnestness and intensity. Mark Hanna, whom our Democratic friends regard as the "root of all evil," came in for his share of complimentary reference, and the Republican party—we cannot begin to tell all the nice things said about the Republican party. We will leave our readers to guess what was said. Let your imagination run riot, you cannot overestimate the extent of their encomium.

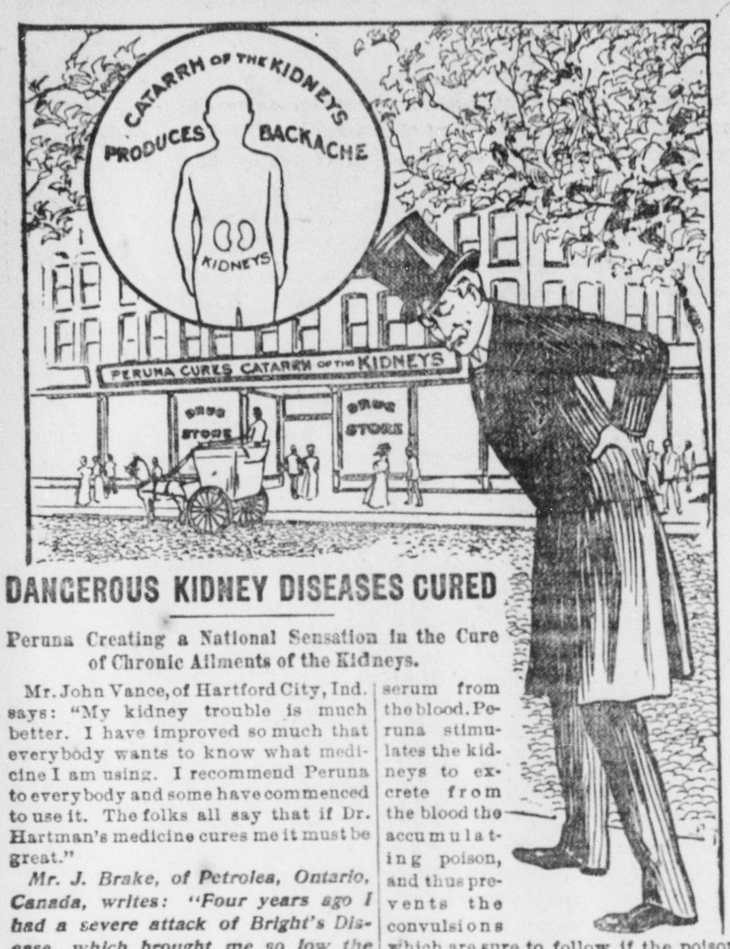
THE Democrats know their only hope for victory in the county this fall rests in their ability to drive Republicans away from the support of their ticket by tantalizing and provoking reference to our recent factional differences. Don't play into their hands by yielding to the influence of their slurring insinuations. Allison and Thompson are the candidates of a united party; give them, Republicans of Centre, a united support and pay no heed to the Democratic campaign articles. Let them work out their own salvation within the ranks of their own party. That will keep them busy.

"THE Constitution follows the flag" vociferously exclaims Mr. Stevenson, the Democratic Vice Presidential candidate. The public would be pleased to have the distinguished gentleman define the relation of the Democratic party to the flag. The general opinion is that the Democrats of the Bryan type follow the flag only to pull it down and trail it in the dust.

"THE corner-stone of imperialism is the standing army" according to Adlai E. Stevenson. If that be true imperialism has a mighty poor chance for success in this country if it is built upon the foundation of our standing army of 100,000 against a population of 75,000,000.

AFTER all is said the paramount issue this year is Bryan vs. Business.

PERUNA CURES CATARRH OF KIDNEYS EVERY TIME.



DANGEROUS KIDNEY DISEASES CURED

Peruna Creating a National Sensation in the Cure of Chronic Ailments of the Kidneys.

Mr. John Vance, of Hartford City, Ind. says: "My kidney trouble is much better. I have improved so much that everybody wants to know what medicine I am using. I recommend Peruna to everybody and some have commenced to use it. The folks all say that if Dr. Hartman's medicine cures me it must be great."

Mr. J. Brake, of Petrolea, Ontario, Canada, writes: "Four years ago I had a severe attack of Bright's Disease, which brought me so low the doctor said nothing more could be done for me. I began to to take Peruna and Manalin, and in three months I was a well man, and have continued so ever since."

At the appearance of the first symptom of kidney trouble, Peruna should be taken. This remedy strikes at once the very root of the disease. It at once relieves the catarrhal kidneys of the stagnant blood, preventing the escape of serum from the blood. Peruna stimulates the kidneys to excrete from the blood the accumulating poison, and thus prevents the convulsions which are sure to follow if the poisons are allowed to remain. It gives great vigor to the heart's action and digestive system, both of which are apt to fail rapidly in this disease.

Peruna cures catarrh of the kidneys simply because it cures catarrh wherever located.

A book on catarrh, written by Dr. Hartman, will be sent free to any address by The Peruna Medicine Co., Columbus, Ohio.

FOOT BALL.

Altoona High School Defeated Bellefonte Academy by 12 to 0.

The following account of Saturday's foot ball game at Altoona is taken from the Altoona Tribune:

The High school team defeated Bellefonte Academy on the gridiron at Waverley Field Saturday afternoon. It was a pretty game and was witnessed by a crowd of 300 people. The rain prevented many from attending the game. Bellefonte came here expecting to go home victorious. The local boys were winners from the start, having a stronger line and better backs. The features of the game were the playing of left end Wingard and left half back Greer for the local team and left end Hoy, of the visitors.

In the first half High school, with a series of rushes and end runs, carried the ball to within 4 yards of Bellefonte's goal. Greer was given the ball and he went through the line and scored a touchdown, two and one-half minutes after play had begun. Wingard kicked a pretty goal. On play being resumed High school again invaded Bellefonte's territory and had reached within 20 yards of the goal when a fumble was made in which Bellefonte secured the ball. Bellefonte kicked landing the ball in High school territory. The half ended on High school's 30 yard line.

The second half was more interesting than the first, Bellefonte playing a stiffer game. The ball was carried up and down the field for short gains, until it finally landed dangerously near Bellefonte's goal line, the result of a fumble on Bellefonte's part. High school bucked the line and carried the ball within a few inches of the goal. With but a few minutes to play, Fair was given the ball and carried it over the line for a touchdown. Wingard kicked a goal. The game ended with the ball in Bellefonte territory.

The lineup of the team and the officials were:

A. H. S. 12.	POSITION.	B. A. C.
Wingard, Capt.	Left End	Hoy
Breisacher	Left Tackle	Babb
Fair	Left Guard	J McGee
Dalton	Centre	Stevens
Gracey	Right Guard	G. McGee
Fluke	Right Tackle	Fleming
Goshen	Right End	Mahaffey
Harnish	Quarterback	Cassidy
Greer	Left Half Back	Twitmire
Wehrle	Right Half Back	Eadon
Kelly	Full Back	Curtin

Referee, Dr. W. H. Howell (University of Penna.); linesmen, Harry McCarthy and Geo. Thompson; timekeeper Carl Tate.

DECIDE YOURSELF.

The Opportunity is Here, Backed by Bellefonte Testimony.

Don't take our word for it.

Don't depend on a stranger's statement.

Read Bellefonte endorsement.

Read the statements of Bellefonte citizens.

And decide for yourself.

Here is one case of it:

Geo. Cox, residing on what is known as Half Moon Hill says: "I can conscientiously recommend Doan's Kidney Pills judging from what they did for me. I suffered intensely from pains in my back and lameness across my kidneys. Statements in this paper about Doan's Kidney Pills attracted my attention and I called on F. P. Green, the druggist and got a box. They did me a great deal of good although I did not take them as regularly as I should, for the moment the pain ceased and I felt better, I stopped taking them. They gave me the greatest relief and I can give them the credit of saving me much suffering."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the U. S.

Remember the name Doan's and take no substitute.

TWO DECLARATIONS.

"If there is any one who believes the Gold Standard is a good thing, or that it must be maintained, I warn him not to cast his ballot for me, because I promise him it will not be maintained in this country longer than I am able to get rid of it."—William Jennings Bryan in a speech at Knoxville, Tenn., Sept. 16, 1896.

"What I denounce is a Protective Tariff. It is false economy and the most vicious political principle that has ever cursed this country.—William Jennings Bryan in a speech in the House of Representatives, 1894, advocating the passage of the Wilson-Gorman Free Trade Tariff law

TAKE NO CHANCES.

Does anyone doubt that Bryan's election would cause the gravest economic disturbance, which would result in thousands of people being thrown out of work? Democrats may claim that afterwards the country would profit by the change, but they cannot deny that the immediate effect would be distressing—and on none more so than those who live on salaries. If the people of the country know when they are well off they will take no chances on after results.

It is quite true that the Republicans are using money to win the election, but it is money still in the pockets of the people of the country earned by them owing to the great prosperity that McKinley has brought and not money collected together in a campaign fund.

As the campaign progresses it becomes evident that Bryan is sinking beneath the weight of Bryanism. It is not a single issue that is destroying him; it is the personality of the man and the growing belief that his election would be a national calamity.

Those who object to negro domination should certainly vote for McKinley. For, of course, after what he has said, Bryan will feel it incumbent on him, if elected, to appoint a great many negroes to high office.

The Democratic party is most remarkable this year for the distinguished accessions to its ranks that didn't access, as it were, ex-President Cleveland and ex-Secretary Carlisle, for instance.

WASHINGTON LETTER.

From our Regular Correspondent.)

Washington, Oct. 16th, 1900.

President McKinley is naturally pleased with the political news he is getting, which indicates his own triumphant re-election and the election of the republican majority of the House. This news has been growing more and more convincing since the registration in a number of states has been under way. Instead of the light registration which was feared on account of over-confidence on the part of the republicans, there has so far been a registration which makes it look as though the popular vote would exceed that cast four years ago, which was unusually heavy, and that makes republican victory as near certain as anything not yet actually accomplished can possibly be. Shrewd political observers are now predicting an absolute collapse of th e ryan campaign before election day and a republican tidal wave. Whether it will go that far is, of course, a question, but there are certainly signs in plenty to justify those predictions.

Third Assistant Postmaster Madden takes more than an official interest in the series of memorial postage stamps that will be issued in connection with the Pan-American Exposition at Buffalo, being a citizen of New York and therefore personally interested in anything that will help along the Buffalo show. He has been conferring with the head of the Bureau of Engraving and Printing and one of the results is the announcement that the Buffalo stamps will be printed in two colors, which will be something entirely new, and would not have been possible before the increase in the facilities of the Bureau, made under the present administration. The law prescribes the distinctive color of stamps of each denomination, but the Buffalo stamps will be given a handsome border in a contrasting color.

Mrs. Hobart and Garret A. Hobart, Jr., are guests of the President and Mrs. McKinley at the White House.

The desperation of the Bryanites is evidenced by the fact that both Mr. Bryan and Mr. Stevenson are attributing things to Abraham Lincoln that he never said. Secretary Hay, who was Lincoln's private secretary and who assisted by John Nicolay wrote the most complete life of Lincoln ever published, after years of study, having access to all the writings of the martyr-President, declares the Lincoln quotation used by Mr. Stevenson in a recent speech—a prediction that a combination of corporate wealth would destroy the republic-to be a forgery, and said of it: "The passage does not appear in any of the standard collections of Lincoln's writings. Its style and manner are entirely different from Lincoln. It is generally reported in the West that it is the invention of a spiritualistic medium, made several years after Mr. Lincoln died." If it were only some obscure member of a party that made use of such forgeries, it might be excused on the ground of ignorance, but no such excuse will do for the candidates for President and Vice President of a political party. When such men resort to such methods, it is usually with a wilful intent to deceive their hearers, and no man who tries to deceive the people is worthy of being elected to the high offices to which these men aspire.

Senator Chauncey M. Depew, who has been on the stump in the West and in his own state, and has had an excellent opportunity to feel the public pulse, says the tide has turned strongly against Bryan, and that the silent vote and the vote of the big business man, the wage-earner, the salaried man, and the farmer and the small business man is going to be enormous, and will practically all go to McKinley and Roosevelt.

Senator Chandler, who isn't so busy conducting his own fight for re-election, that he neglects to keep posted on the condition of national politics, thinks that the election of McKinley and Roosevelt is already assured, although he thinks an effort will be made while Bryan is in the East, to create a Bryan Hurrah for the purpose of enabling some of those who have bet big money to hedge. He thinks that Mr. Bryan's arguments are worn threadbare and that he has talked himself out, and cites his recent ignoring or distorting of republican arguments as proof that he is beginning to realize the weakness of his position.

Hon. John G. Carlisle, ex-Representative; ex-Speaker and ex-Senator, told a Washington friend that he had not a doubt of the re-election of President McKinley.

Hon. Andrew D. White, U. S. Ambassador to Germany, was one of the President's callers during the week. He says that this country has added largely to its prestige among the diplomats of Europe by its skillful handling of the several dangerous situations that have arisen in China. In his own words: "One of the shrewdest members of the Diplomatic Corps told me just before I sailed for this country that this government was the only one that scored a diplomatic triumph. The opinion seems to be quite general in Europe that this country acted with great wisdom and discretion when things were at their worst in China." Mr. White will sail from New York to Berlin this week.

WANTED—One young man from Centre County, to prepare for the coming RAILWAY MAIL SERVICE Examination. We furnish everything, including BOOKS and MAPS. Address, enclosing stamp. Inter-State Correspondence Institute, Cedar Rapids, Iowa. oct4-4t

HANNAH MARY TANYER.

Death of a Highly Respected Christian Lady of Pine Grove Mills.

Just as the midnight hour was striking on Tuesday night the angel of death entered the Tanyer home at Pine Grove Mills and took hence the spirit of Mrs. Hannah Mary Tanyer, wife of William A. Tanyer, at their home on Water St., at that place. Death resulted from a stroke of paralysis with which she was stricken about ten day ago.

Deceased, whose maiden name was Eckels, was born within site of the town of Pine Grove Mills and all her life had been spent in this pretty little burg. She was 63 years of age and was the mother of ten children, seven of whom are living.

The names of her surviving children are Mrs. Milton Snuey and Mrs. George Graham of State College; Alexander, of Pittsburg; James, of Pine Hall; Mrs. Harry Imboden, of Erbtown, Pa.; Sadie who is married and lives in Pittsburg and Maggie at home.

She also leaves one brother, John Eckels, of Loganton, Clinton county, and a sister, Mrs. William H. Graham, of Philipsburg. Her husband William A. Tanyer also survives to mourn her loss.

Mrs. Tanyer was a member of the Methodist Episcopal church and was an earnest christian lady. She was a woman who was always doing something for some one, in fact she virtually lived for others. She will be greatly missed not only by her family but by the community in which she lived.

The funeral will take place this afternoon at 1:30. Interment in the new cemetery at Pine Grove Mills. The services will be conducted by Rev. C. T. Aikens, owing to the illness of her regular pastor, Rev. Noble, of State College.

Wives for Colonial Settlers.

In a paper just published by the German Colonial Society it is announced that 60 young women have emigrated to Southwest Africa under the auspices and at the expense of the society. Of these a part are servant girls, the rest being the fiancees, wives and other relatives of settlers. The journey to Southwest Africa is only undertaken on the express condition that the Imperial Government will provide the immigrants with the means of obtaining a livelihood. With hardly an exception the young girls who have left the Fatherland for African have become engaged or are already married.

In Great Britain the Women's Emigration Society is still also thriving. Though there is not in England, said Miss Lefroy, the Secretary, any organized State-aided movement of the kind carried on in Germany, many young women are helped to find employment and—incidentally—husbands in our possessions across the sea. They are not sent out free of charge or landed haphazard in distant colonies, but are advised, trained and sent out to good situations. Money lent for traveling and other expenses has to be paid by installments.

During 1899 the society sent out to Canada, Australia and Africa 240 single women, as nurses, teachers, governesses, helps and domestic servants. Every one bore an excellent character and was well trained, and most of them were, in addition, well educated. In connection with the society there is a training home in Shropshire, where for a small weekly sum would-be emigrants may become expert cooks, housewives, dressmakers and so forth. The Rhodesian Government has recently placed a sum of £500 at the disposal of the society for the purpose of assisting women to emigrate to that colony.

Uncle Sam's Honesty.

George Resoner, of Muncie, Ind., yesterday received a 5-cent check from the Treasury department at Washington, D. C., in payment of an excess settlement made by him 14 years ago, when he was postmaster of Wheeling, a small town four miles northwest of this city. At that time Resoner made his usual monthly report and settlement through the Cincinnati postoffice. He sent in five cents too much once, but did not know of it until yesterday, when the check came, accompanied by a letter of explanation. This was this first time that Resoner ever knew he had given Uncle Sam too much money. He says the government will still be indebted on its account to the Wheeling postoffice, for he does not intend to cash the check, but will have it framed and hung in his home as a souvenir of Uncle Sam's squareness and honesty.—Cincinnati Enquirer.

A Large Wedding Cake.

The Oil Region News published in Mannington, in an account of the wedding of Mr. S. J. Todd, of that place, to Miss Kerohan, of Niles, O., says: "Mr. and Mrs. Todd's wedding cake weighs 167½ pounds, is 80 inches in circumference on the bottom, and 40 inches high. Contents of the cake: Seven sacks of flour, 42 dozen of eggs, 35 pounds of butter, 47 pounds of sugar, 30 pounds of raisins, 20 pounds of citron, 30 pounds of currants."

Mr. Bryan deplores his enforced absence from his home to fill the demands upon his time during the campaign, but there are a number of people who are willing to console him with the thought that he will have lots of time to spend there after November.

REBERSBURG NEWS.

Wm. Morris and mother of Logantown visited at J. C. Morris' on Saturday.

T. E. Royer one of our best citizens and a staunch republican has rented his large farm to Jacob Winklebiech of Penn township.

The grim reaper, death, has again entered our midst and claimed as his victims Cyrus Erhart and Mr. Walker.

Mr. Erhart was a modest non-assuming man, always the same, no difference what betide, always calm and reposed was a sincere christian, a loyal member of the Lutheran church. He leaves, a widow, three daughters and one son to mourn the loss of a loving husband and a kind father. He was buried on Monday.

Wm. Walker passed into eternity on Saturday evening, was one of the oldest citizens in Miles township, has been in ill health for nearly one year. Mr. Walker was a faithful and lawabiding citizen. Funeral yesterday (Wednesday.)

Clyde Erhart of Ohio was home to attend the funeral of his father.

Pierce Erhart wife, daughter and son-in-law of Mifflinburg were visiting in town for nearly a week.

Mrs. Wm. Coldron and son were guests of H. H. Miller, over Sunday.

J. W. Harter our enterprising merchant, brought a fine black horse along from Phila. says "He is the finest in the country."

J. B. Kreamer had quite an experience on Saturday he hitched his new horse, placing a boot on the hind leg, this causing the horse to throw him out of the cart, and drag him several rods, but fortunately not hurting Mr. Kreamer.

Prof. C. L. Gramley was one of the invited guests of the Hasting-Hickok wedding last week.

Politics seems rather quiet at this end this Fall. Some of the Gold Democrats seem to swing over to McKinley.

No Bird This Year.

If the game laws are enforced, the bloods of Pennsylvania will miss the customary "hot bird and cold bottle," on festive occasions during the coming game season. That is to say, under the provisions of the law of Pennsylvania, supplemented by the Lacy act of Congress, quail, pheasants and similar game cannot be sold in Pennsylvania even steaming hot and "on toast." In other words the Act of Assembly forbids the selling of a bird under any circumstances, but in the shooting season birds were hitherto sold under the pretense that they were brought in from another State.

The Lacy act of Congress provides that the moment a bird crosses the line of any State it comes under the law of that State. That means that birds from West Virginia or any other State are subject to the provisions of the Pennsylvania law when they come into Pennsylvania and that law prohibits the sale of them under any circumstances.

The Harrisburg Independent, from which we quote, comes to this conclusion, viz: that it "will be a trifle tough on a few of us, probably, but we will be obliged to stand it unless we 'get our guns' and shoot such birds as our appetites crave. The sportsmen claim that such regulations are necessary in order to prevent the extinction of the game, and if that be true, 'the end justifies the means.' It would be a sad thing to extinguish the game of Pennsylvania."

Long Reign of Great Britain's Queen.

London Express.

Queen Victoria has completed a reign of over 63 years, four years longer than the period during which George III. ruled over Britain. Since Egbert became the first King of all England only four Soverigns have lived to see the jubilee of their coronation. Of these Edward III. reigned 50 years, Henry II. 56 years, and George III. completed 59 years and 96 days. In Scotland James VI., who afterward became James I. of England, reigned for 58 years, and was the only one of the Scottish Kings who had a jubilee, his nearest competitor being William the Lion, who sat on the throne for 49 years and a few days.

Improvements at Beech Creek.

The New York Central railroad intends making several improvements at Beech Creek. Another new automatic weighing machine will be placed on the south side of the building which will admit of two trains being weighed at the same time. Several new long side tracks will be placed at that point, making it available for a yard. A corps of engineers last week located a new water tank a short distance below the scales and measured the elevation of the intake pipe which will have its source in the Hoagan gaps of the Bald Eagle mountains over a mile distant, the mountain stream coming through it having been affected very little by the continued dry weather.

Ice in Cuba a Domestic Luxury.

One of the first discouragements which confronts the American housekeeper in Cuba is in the matter of ice. A generous ice supply is common only in the very wealthy families; all ice is of course manufactured, and it is far too expensive to be a household commodity in the average Havana home. At boarding houses ice is never furnished without extra charge, and the big refrigerator with its ice chamber packed to the lid is something that is at once conspicuous by its absence to the in-coming housekeeper from this country.

A Very Bad Combine is that of
A Very Bad Sprain
and
A Very Black Bruise

It often happens, but just as often

St. Jacobs Oil

makes a clean, sure, promp cure of both.

Centre County Fair.

On account of the Centre County Fair, to be held at Bellefonte, Pa., the Central R. R. of Penn's will sell excursion tickets from all stations to Bellefonte at rate of single fare for round trip, good going October 16, 17, 18 and 19th and for return passage on or before October 20th. On Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday and Friday (October 16, 17, 18 and 19) a special train will leave Mill Hall at 11:30 a. m., stopping at all stations.

On each day of the Fair trains will be run every 15 minutes between 1:00 and 3:00 p. m., from Bellefonte station, foot of Lamb street, to the Fair Grounds; also, after the races, from the Fair Grounds to Lamb Street station. Tickets will be sold at the rate of 10 cents for the round trip.

Bellefonte, Pa., Oct. 10, 1900. 13-4t

BELLEFONTE CENTRAL R. R. CO.

Centre County Fair at Bellefonte, Oct. 16, 17, 18 and 19, 1900.

Regular trains arrive at Bellefonte 8:50 a. m.; 2,40 and 6.40 p. m. Regular trains leave Bellefonte 6:39 and 10:30 a. m.; 4:15 p. m. Special train will leave Bellefonte at 7 p. m.

Single fare for round trip from all stations; no fare less than 25c. Tickets good for return only on date of issue.

F. H. Thomas,
Supt.

The Public Take Notice.

The Central Penna. Telephone & Supply Co., hereby give notice to their subscribers that they have placed two telephones on the grounds of the Centre county Fair Association for the express use of their subscribers free of charge anywhere in this district. One is at the exhibition building and the other is at the stock stables.

O. C. Campbell,
Manager.

A 13 Year Old Eloper.

Carrie August, a school girl aged 13, daughter of Samuel August, of Jersey Shore, kissed her mother a few days ago and left for school as her parents believed. Instead, the girl bought a ticket for Pittsburg and left on the train. She went to that city to join Frank W. Callahan, a married man, and whose lover like attentions to Carrie were opposed by her parents.

Ex-Congressman W. C. Arnold, of DuBois will stump the state of Montana in the interest of McKinley & Roosevelt.

How far from its cardinal principles the Democratic party has traveled may be noted by recalling the fact that its shibboleth used to be that the country was governed best that was governed least.

As soon as McKinley was elected in 1896 confidence was restored and we have had prosperity ever since. Why change conditions to the hard times in vogue from 1892 to 1896? The election of Bryan will do this.

LOST.

On Friday evening three ten dollar bills were lost somewhere on the public square. The finder will be liberally rewarded by leaving the same with Mr. Thompson of the Brockerhoff House.

BELLEFONTE
Real Estate and Loan
COMPANY.

John C. Miller. Edmund Blanchard.

Real estate conveyancing and the placing of loans made a specialty.

Valuable Town and Country property for rent.

Valuable Town and Country property for sale.

Loans negotiated in large and small amounts.

Rents promptly collected and property cared for.

If you have a Farm or Town Property for sale or rent place it in their hands.

If you wish to rent a farm or house consult them.

If you wish to borrow money call on them.

OFFICE:

Second Floor, Bush Arcade.

Telephone connections.

A DOSE OF JUSTICE.

LADLED OUT WITH A LIBERAL HAND BY JUDGE HOKE.

The Court Considers the Case of Arizona Sam, General Bad Man, and Disposes of It Without the Aid of Advice From His Lawyer.

[Copyright, 1900, by C. B. Lewis.]

"This yere case," said Judge Hoke, as he called the court to order, "appeals to me not only as the legally elected and only jestice of the peace fur the county of Cold Chuck, but to every man in these diggin's who carries a gun and is supposed to hev the sand to take keer of hisself. It is the case of Arizona Sam versus Pete the Half Breed, and Sam is the complainant. I see he's got a lawyer yere to gab fur him, but that lawyer won't hev no talkin to do.

"Let us begin at the beginnin. Arizona Sam strikes this town a year ago. He has a yell like a fog horn and he weighs 200 pounds. He wears two guns and a knife, and he bites the tops off a dozen beer bottles to show that he was born in a cyclone and cradled in a hurricane. He was sized up fur a bad man, and fur months and months he's bin cock of the walk. I can't remember that he's killed anybody, but that was bekase everybody swallered his bluffs and stepped around softly. He has defied the vigilance committee and he has bluffed this court, and it'll astonish ye to find out jest what sort of a critter he is. Yesterday mornin he starts over the hills fur Tin Cup City. On the way he meets Pete the Half Breed. Most of ye know Pete and most of ye hev heard that he's got no backbone. Pete was ridin his cayuse and Sam was hoofin it. When they come together Sam holds up his hand and says:

"'Git off'n that hoss!'

"'What fur?' asks Pete.

"'Bekase I want him.'

"'But he's mine.'

"Then Sam calls him a string of names 40 rods long. He abuses Pete's father and mother and all the rest of his relations. He chanks his teeth and rolls his eyes and pulls his guns. He wants that cayuse, and he wants him inside of two minutes. Ye may figger that Pete, who hadn't any gun with him, turned pale and fell out of the saddle with a thump, but ye'll be mistaken if ye do. It took him some leet'le time to realize the situashun, but he didn't skeer. When he got things straight he slid off his critter and lit on to Sam. Did the bold, bad man who has carried the county of Cold Chuck in his pocket fur a year drill holes through the half breed as he come? Not a drill. Was thar an awful struggle lastin half an hour before victory perched on either banner? Not a struggle. That half breed, who was thought to be a worm of the dust, takes the bold, bad man by the nose and leads him around fur awhile. Then he strips him of his weepins, pulls his ears, slaps his jaw and kicks him around a bend of the trail.

"GIT OFF'N THAT HOSS!"

"What does the terrible terror of Cold Chuck county do? Hevin given hisself away as a coward and a blowhard does he fall over a cliff that men may furgit him? Does he strike out fur a p'int 1,000 miles away, that his name may never be known? Not much. He comes right back to town and to me, and the fust thing he says is:

"'Jedge, I want jestice.'

"'What sort of jestice?'

"'Jestice fur bein held up and robbed by Pete the Half Breed.'

"'But why didn't ye shute?'

"'He skulked up on me. Gimme jestice, jedge—gimme lots of it.'

"That was Arizona Sam, bold, bad man, and I believed his yarn and sent out a warrant and had Pete arrested. I was calkerlatin to gin him a mighty dose of jestice, but hearin his side of the story has changed my mind. 'Sam, the bluffer, stand up. Are ye denyin that what Pete says is true?'

"'He lit on me mighty sudden, jedge,' was the reply.

"'But you didn't try to pull a gun?'

"'Mebbe not.'

"'And you didn't fight?'

"'I don't think so.'

"'That's 'nuff. Ye ar' simply a great big blowhard and a bluffer, and ye've made every good man in this town back water. We'll be the laughin stock of Tin Cup, Pine Hill and all the other diggin's, and we'll feel the disgrace fur five y'ars. I can't send ye to jail fur bein a bluffer and a duffer, but I'm goin to sentence ye to be booted from this yere temple of jestice to the Red Dog saloon, and if ye ain't over the hill and out of town ten minits later I won't answer fur consequences. As fur Pete, he is sot at liberty, and he kin keep yer weepins and be the fust man to apply the boot. The rest of us, includin the court, will fall in arter him, and as ye feel yerself lifted cl'ar off the earth I hope ye may come to realize that though jestice is blind and moves along like a kyote with two legs broke, she keeps reachin out her hand till she gits the right critter by the neck.'"

M. QUAD.

The average man likes to point to the good traits in his children as a heritage from himself.—Chicago News

THE ENGAGEMENT RING.

Peculiar Ways In Which It Causes a Young Woman to Act.

Did you ever have a chance to observe, unobserved, a young woman's conduct toward her newly acquired engagement ring?

It feels so strange upon her hand that she cannot refrain from examining it a dozen times an hour, always, however, on the sly. On the first night she sits up an hour later than usual to admire it boldly in the seclusion of her own apartment. A frequent kiss is administered to the shining band and its glittering gem, and during the night she dreams that it has fallen into a stream and awakes clutching the finger to assure herself that the precious pledge is still secure.

Then, on the following day, she wears it only in secret, taking care to transfer it to her pocket at table and when in the company of intimates, but place her among strangers or among casual acquaintances who cannot be inquisitive, and how bravely will she flaunt the token before their eyes, as one who should say:

"I may not be the loveliest creature in the world, but you will observe that I have landed my fish."

Gradually it assumes its place in her daily life, and her blushes grow less violent with each succeeding explanation of its significance and each extravagant description of its donor's attributes. But before it finally becomes a part of herself, as it were, she must, of course, leave it a dozen times at least upon the washstand and suffer in consequence a dozen violent attacks of palpitation of the heart until it is recovered.—London Answers.

THEY DYE THEIR SCALPS.

For Beauty After the Head Has Been Shaved Perfectly Smooth.

A French explorer has discovered the vainest people in the world. By a curious coincidence they happen to be also the ugliest. They are the Pahouins, a savage tribe of the western coast of Africa. The main occupation of these people is the adornment of their persons. As the Pahouin's clothing is of so light a character as not to incommode him he bestows a good share of his thought upon the adornment of his body, which he tattoos in elaborate designs done in red or blue. Or a more fanciful effect is obtained by tattooing in relief by injecting underneath the skin the juice of a plant which produces a permanent swelling. Sometimes the face and body are also tinted with a dye, red being the color most in demand.

The same methods are used in adorning the face, especial attention being given to the nose. Many of the Pahouins after tattooing or painting their noses pierce them with long, slender bones. Others after piercing the nose attach to it a string of colored pearls. Both men and women concentrate their efforts on their hair. Their ingenuity, which is shown in the construction of scores of different headdresses of bone and metal for the men of the tribe, chiefly the warriors, is illustrated in a far greater degree by the coiffures of the women.

The extreme of simplicity in the Pahouin women's method in making themselves beautiful is to shave the head till it is smooth and round as a ball and then to color it with a dye.—Cincinnati Enquirer.

Addressed the Jury.

A man who had never seen the inside of a courtroom until he was introduced as a witness in a case pending in one of the Scottish courts, on being sworn took a position with his back to the jury and began telling the story to the judge.

The judge, in a bland and courteous manner, said:

"Address yourself to the jury, sir."

The man made a short pause, but, notwithstanding what had been said to him, continued his narrative.

The judge was then more explicit and said to him: "Speak to the jury, sir, the men sitting behind you on the benches."

The witness at once turned around and making an awkward bow said with perfect gravity:

"Good morning, gentlemen."—Buffalo Courier.

A Catalogue.

"Miss Mary," said the sable maiden, "we 'spect to have an en'tainment at our chu'ch nex' week, and I got to speak a piece. I was jest goin to ast you if you had a book with some ob them pieces in?"

"Why, yes, Dora, I have a book of recitations. What kind of a piece do you want?"

"Well, I was thinkin ob somep'n in de nature ob a catalogue."

"A what?"

"A catalogue—you know, a piece with one person a-talkin and 'nother one answerin 'em back. Has you got a piece like dat? I'd like it fust rate."—New York Tribune.

A Secret of Youth.

One night at a reception which Senator Beveridge and I attended soon after his election the hostess said in mock surprise:

"Are you Senator Beveridge, the senator from Indiana?"

The senator bowed modestly.

"It hardly seems possible. Why, you are a mere beardless youth!"

"Madam," replied Mr. Beveridge without a smile, "I shave."—Saturday Evening Post.

Paraguay Tea.

When the yerba mate, or native tea of Paraguay, is cultivated, the seeds are treated to an acid bath before planting. This softens the hard shell which surrounds the kernel of the seeds and enables them to sprout in three or four months. If planted in their natural state, it requires three or four years for the seeds to germinate.

AVERTED A SMASH UP

HIS SCHEME WAS SIMPLE AND THOROUGHLY EFFECTIVE.

A Safe Plan, Not Patented, That May Be Followed by Railroad Telegraph Operators Who Must Go to Sleep While on Duty.

"However tired or overworked he may be the railroad operator who allows trains to smash into each other while he pounds his ear is a brainless idiot," said William James, an old timer. "When I was a youngster I was in charge of a station down in Pennsylvania. I went to sleep on duty because I couldn't keep awake. Trains met there every hour or so, and I was the only person to run the business at that point. I went to sleep and slept six hours, and there wasn't any smash up or the slightest possibility of one so far as my station was concerned.

"I was 15 years old when I applied for a job to Superintendent Pitcairn of the Philadelphia and Erie. He took me on immediately and sent me out to Kane. That was the place where Dr. Kane, the Arctic explorer, once lived, and it was named for him. Kane is on top of a mountain, with Wilcox at the bottom on one side and Wetmore on the other. Oil is the great product there now, but in 1866 the traffic was in general freight. Big trains met at Kane, and for a small place the traffic was considerable.

"I was met at the station by a big, wild eyed man, who said that he guessed I was the kid that was going to relieve him. He said he was glad to get out, but he guessed I'd like the work.

"'You'll have the night trick,' said he, 'and you'll only have to be here from 6 p. m. to 7 a. m.'

"I looked up with dismay, but he was striding ahead into the station. He instructed me in my duties, told me of a country tavern about two miles away and then swung on to the train that had been waiting 20 minutes for lunch and was gone.

"When the day man relieved me the next morning, I put for the hotel and found it after tramping about for two hours and made arrangements to stay there. The proprietor's wife seemed to take a motherly interest in me, and that afternoon when I started for work she had a bang up lunch of fried chicken and jam and things.

"Well, that night about 11 o'clock I got hungry for that chicken and hauled out my lunch basket. I had just got things nicely spread out on the instrument table when in come a fat engineer.

"'Hello, kid!' said he. 'That's too good a feed for you. It'll give you bellyache, sure's the world.'

"Whereupon he put me on a bench, sat on my legs and ate my supper. Then he got up, sucking his teeth, and said:

"'See them woods over there?' pointing across the track. There wasn't anything else in sight. 'Well, them woods is 40 miles long an 15 miles wide an chuck full o' berries. Go'n eat y'uself t' death.'

"He walked leisurely out to his engine, and I went to the lunch shanty just below the station and ate up two days' salary before I discovered how determined the keeper was to have plenty of money to support his old age.

"The next day I didn't go to the hotel, but staid near the station and plotted revenge. It was the custom to telegraph up from Wilcox the number of passengers who wanted meals at the Kane lunch shanty, and when I got the first message that night after vainly scheming all day an idea struck me. The message read, 'Six suppers on 27.' I made it read 26 and carried it to the lunch keeper, who fairly danced with glee at the unexpected rush. He undoubtedly saw a Fifth avenue mansion for his old age. Just as 27 pulled in I rushed into the shanty with a message purporting to have come from Wilcox saying that at the last moment 20 passengers had decided to stay there overnight to take part in a local political celebration. Flynn was furious and went to the conductor for corroboration. The latter heard with a grin the story of the 26 prepared suppers and, remembering his own experiences with Flynn's prices on two or three occasions, simply shrugged his shoulders and said:

"'How c'n I help it?'

"Well, the loss of sleep that day and the excitement did me up, and about 11 o'clock I found I couldn't keep my eyes open. I took the red lantern and nailed the tin bottom to a tie in the middle of the track and went to the edge of the woods and lay down. When I awoke, the day operator, who had been dragged out of bed two hours ahead of time, was getting the Philadelphia and Erie railroad system into operation again after a six hour suspension of service.

"But there wasn't any smash up, and no lives had been lost, and I got a job two days afterward at Titusville."—New York Sun.

Gilbert's Satire.

W. S. Gilbert meeting the editor of Punch one day remarked as he was leaving him:

"By the bye, Burnand, I suppose a great number of funny stories are sent into your office?"

"Oh, yes," said Mr. Burnand, "thousands."

"Then, my dear fellow, why don't you publish them?" replied Mr. Gilbert as he put out his hand to say goodby.

Chinese Riddles.

What is the fire that has no smoke and the water that has no fish?

A glowworm's fire has no smoke, and well water has no fish.

Mention the name of an object with two mouths which travels by night and not by day.

A lantern.—Chicago News.

A SLEEPY GUEST.

Why the Lady of the House Was Indignant Over His Conduct.

There is a well known legal light of Chicago who is in deep disgrace without the shadow of an excuse for himself to bolster up his sinking spirits. He went out to Hyde Park the other night to dine informally with some friends, and his hostess, who had been married but a short time, put herself out to entertain him. The dinner was excellent, and the judge did full justice to it. They had coffee in the library, and the biggest, most padded leather chair was put at the guest's disposal. With a sigh he sank into its cavernous depths and prepared for a luxurious evening with a good cigar ahead of him. Brilliantly his hostess rambled on. She told stories that were witty, and she gently deferred to his views, but presently he left her to do all the talking. In the midst of a striking account of a theater party she stopped with a jerk. There was no response and a dead silence punctuated only by a gentle and regular breathing. The judge was fast asleep in his big chair. There was no doubt of it. Nothing could conceal the fact. With one indignant and comprehensive glance at her plainly delighted husband she arose and majestically swept up stairs. And she did not go down again.

It was some time later when her husband apologetically came up after her. He had not expected her wrath to last. "Did—did you think you were badly treated?" he asked.

"How long did he sleep?" asked the still insulted wife.

Again the grin overspread her husband's face, but he spoke in a sad tone, as befitted the occasion. "Nearly an hour," he breathed. "I wouldn't mind," pacifically.

Then it was the worm turned. "Mind!" she stormed. "Of course I wouldn't, only you have grounds now for the rest of your life for saying I talk so much it puts people to sleep!" And she wept.—Chicago News.

SOMETHING ABOUT ARMIES.

Artillerymen Were Once Regarded as Mechanics, Not Soldiers.

Until the time of Charles XII of Sweden the artillery was not considered a part of the army. The men serving in it were not soldiers, but regarded as mechanics. The officers had no army rank. Charles XII gave artillery officers a rank and regularly organized the artillery into companies. The battle of Pavia demonstrated the superiority of the gun in the hands of the Spanish infantry. The musket carried a two ounce ball and sometimes brought down at one fire two or three mailed knights. The French sent a flag of truce to remonstrate against the use of such barbarous weapons.

Alexander had four kinds of cavalry—the cataphracti, or heavy armed horse; the light cavalry, carrying spears and very light armor; the acrobalistæ, or mounted archers, used for outposts, patrols and reconnoitering duty, and the dimachoe, or troops expected to act either as cavalry or infantry. Alexander the Great reorganized his father's army. The file or lachos of 16 men was the unit; two files made a dilochy; two dilochies made a tetrarchy; two tetrarchies a texiarchy; two of these a syntagura; 16 of these a small phalanx; four of these a tetra-phalangarchy, otherwise known as a large phalanx.

The Greeks attacked in a phalanx, the spears interlocked and shields overlapping. After the first onset the spears were dropped, and the day was decided with the sword. The cavalry attacked the enemy in the rear, if possible, and, in case of victory, undertook the pursuit.—Pearson's Weekly.

Not the Conventional Woman.

"But I don't know you, madam," the bank cashier said to the woman who had presented a check.

But this woman, instead of saying haughtily, "I do not wish your acquaintance, sir," merely replied, with an engaging smile:

"Oh, yes, you do, I think. I'm the 'redheaded old virago' next door to you whose 'scoundrelly little boys' are always reaching through the fence and picking your flowers. When you started down town this morning, your wife said: 'Now, Henry, if you want a dinner fit to eat this evening, you'll have to leave me a little money. I can't run this house on the city water and 10 cents a day'"—

"Here's your money, madam," said the cashier, pushing it toward her and coughing loudly.—Chicago Tribune.

What the Tots Said.

Here are some sayings of children reported by the Chicago News:

"When small Bobby had worn his first pair of trousers for an hour, he went to his mother and begged to have on his kilt again. 'What for?' she asked. 'Because,' replied Bobby, 'I feel so lonesome in pants.'

"A mother recently had occasion to leave her little 4-year-old son alone at home while she made a brief call in the neighborhood. 'Did you get lonesome, dear?' she asked upon her return. 'Yes, mamma,' replied the little fellow. 'I felt just like a widower without you.'"

Diplomacy Wins.

Ardent Suitor—I lay my fortune at your feet.

Fair Lady—Fortune! I didn't know you had money.

Ardent Suitor—I haven't much, but it takes very little to cover those tiny feet.

He got her.—London Telegraph.

The average man will pay 50 cents to see a show of fireworks and neglect to look at the sunset, which he can see almost every night for nothing.—Louisville Journal.

Something very similar to the telephone was used in China 1,000 years ago.

BEAUTY.

Beauty was born of the world's desire
For the wandering water, the wandering fire;
Under the arch of her hurrying feet
She has trodden a world full of bittersweet.

The blood of the violet is in her veins;
Her pulse has the passion of April rains.
Out of the heart of a satin flower
God made her eyelids in one sweet hour.

Out of the wind he made her feet
That they might be lovely and luring and fleet;
Out of a cloud he wove her hair
Heavy and black with the rain held there.

What is her name? There's none that knows—
Mother of Mischief or Mouth of Rose.
What is her pathway? None may tell,
But it climbs to heaven, and it dips to hell.

The garment on her is mist and fire,
Anger and sorrow and heart's desire.
Her forehead jewel's an amethyst;
The garland to her is love in a mist.

Her girdle is of the beryl stone,
And one dark rose for her flower has grown,
Filled to the brim with the strength of the sun,
A passionate rose, and only one.

The bird in her breast sings all day long
A wonderful, wistful, whispering song;
The song that is of all passing things,
None knows it—wingless or born with wings.

—Nora Hopper.

WEARING EYEGLASSES.

The Knack of Balancing Them Properly on the Nose.

A young man who had purchased a pair of eyeglasses at a local optician's the other day was complaining to the clerk that he couldn't keep them on.

"They are continually falling off," he said, "and are really getting to be a first class nuisance. Don't you think it would help things if you tightened up the spring a little?"

"No. I wouldn't advise you to alter the spring," replied the clerk. "It's so tight now that it is scarring your nose. If you'll only be patient for a few days, I think you'll learn to wear these glasses all right. Come in at the end of the week, and if you are still having trouble with them I'll fit you out with a pair of spectacles."

"What do you mean by 'learning to wear' those eyeglasses?" asked a man who happened to be standing within earshot after the customer had walked out. "Is it a trick that has to be acquired by practice?"

"Certainly it is," replied the clerk. "Wearing eyeglasses is something that has to be learned, just like riding a bicycle—in fact, the comparison is pretty good, because both are simply feats of balancing. The shape of the nose has very little to do with it," continued the clerk, "and isn't worth taking into consideration in selecting a pair of glasses. But if a man has a nose like the prow of an armored cruiser he couldn't make eyeglasses stay there at first attempt. Until he acquired the knack of keeping them in place by balance they would be falling off every time he made a sudden movement, no matter how tightly he screwed up the spring. Once the trick is mastered, however, there is no further trouble. People who wear eyeglasses habitually and who may be regarded as experts keep the spring very loose. The glasses rest on the bridge of the nose as lightly as a feather, but they never come off. I once saw a nearsighted man fall down two flights of stairs and get up with his glasses still firmly in place. How is it done? Dear me, I don't know! How do people learn to walk the tight rope?"—New Orleans Times-Democrat.

His Free Library.

A Main street secondhand bookstore was the scene of an amusing little comedy the other day. A ragged urchin, who had crept in unnoticed, pulled a dog eared book with a gilded title of love and adventure from the rack and, after fingering it for a moment, became immediately absorbed in the thrilling tale.

When the bookseller caught sight of his impecunious visitor, his first impulse was to chase the boy away. On second thought, however, he left the youthful reader to his pleasure. At length the time for closing came around, and the old man set about bolting the shutters.

The noise awoke the urchin from his dream. He lingeringly closed the book and, sidling up to the proprietor, asked with all the assurance of his gutter training, "Say, mister, what time d'yer open termorrer?"—Hartford Telegram.

Trouble Ahead.

Married Man—And you are engaged to Miss Blankie?

Young Friend—Yes. I watched her a whole day on the railroad train and became so interested in her that I followed her up, got an introduction, and now we are to be married.

Married Man—Was she traveling alone?

Young Friend—No. She was with her mother, and her kindness to her mother is what captured me.

Married Man—But, gee willikins, old man, she'll go on being kind to her mother.—New York Weekly.

No Use.

Catterson—Look here, old man! Let me tell you how I manage my wife. I always give her money when she does not want it, and when she does I refer to the time when I offered it to her.

Hatterson—That's a fine scheme, but it wouldn't work in my case.

"Why not?"

"Well, I've never yet seen the time when my wife didn't want money."—Harper's Bazar.

The Retort Proper.

The Collector—Here it is Tuesday, and you haven't paid a cent on that watch. You promised to have the money for me Saturday.

The Young Man—Well, it is only Friday by the watch. It is that much slow.—Indianapolis Press.

Difficult Color Scheme.

"The baby has his father's nose, don't you think?"

"Nonsense! Nature could no more reproduce that nose than she could reproduce a Turner sunset."—Detroit Journal.

ONLY A CROOKED CENT.

When the Young Woman Thought It Was Gold, She Got Nervous.

The car had just rounded "dead man's curve" at Fourteenth street, when a daintily clad young woman swished something out of her hand which as it struck the street was followed by a sharp metallic sound.

"What was that you threw away, my dear?" asked her companion, another girl about the same age.

"Money," laconically responded the thrower.

"Money!" continued her companion in a horrified tone of voice. "Why, it sounded like gold."

"My gracious!" shrieked the thrower. "Have I thrown away one of those goldpieces?"

By this time several of the passengers had arisen from their seats and were looking in an indignant way at the conductor for not stopping the car. He, however, was one of those high collared, stoical young men who boss things on the Broadway cars, and the excitement created by the money thrower did not cause him to turn a hair. All this time the car was bowling as merrily along as Broadway cars ever do bowl, and it was getting farther and farther away from the money. One or two of the passengers were about to jump off the car, but then they thought better of it and turned their gaze anxiously on the young woman, who was hunting frantically through her purse. Just as it seemed the strain would be too much for the excited passengers to bear longer the fair thrower looked up smilingly at her companion and murmured sweetly:

"It's all right, my dear. It wasn't a goldpiece after all."

"What was it, then?" asked the second young woman.

"Only a crooked penny," replied the thrower. "I always throw away crooked pennies for luck."

Then both girls softly giggled, while the other passengers, looking both foolish and disgusted, resumed their seats. —New York Tribune.

ORIGIN OF THE TERM "MOB"

Used In Its First Meaning In Time of Chaucer.

As indicating the populace, proverbially fickle and easy to be moved (mobile, from Latin mobilis), the expression "the mobile people" is as old as the time of Chaucer, but in its later sense, that of the disorderly crowd, and in its contracted form, "mob," it is not older than the postrestoration period. In Roger North's Examen, 1740, reference is made to the Green Ribbon club, 1680-2, and the writer adds:

"I may note that the rabble first changed their title and were called the mob in the assemblies of this club—first mobile vulgus, then contracted in one syllable." It was used hesitatingly at first by Dryden ("Don Sebastian," 1690), Durfy ("Commonwealth of Women," 1688) and Shadwell ("Squire of Alsatia," 1688), and Richardson points out that Dryden uses both "mobile" and "mob" in the sense of rabble, the former in the stage directions as the common word, the latter as if it had not long been introduced.

In 1711 The Spectator instances "mob" as an example of the popular tendency to curtail many of our words in familiar writings and conversation. The verb "to mob," derived of course as above, does not occur until the period of Horace Walpole, many years later, and Shakespeare's expression, "the mobled queen" ("Hamlet"), refers not to the "mob" (mobile), but to the headdress in disorder.—Boston Transcript.

Would Come Anyhow.

The Rev. Father Staunton of the well known Church of St. Alban, Holborn, is a humorist in his way and often tells with inimitable effect a droll story in the course of his sermon which sends through the congregation a gentle ripple of merriment. On Sunday he satirized the ambition of certain people to use words of which they did not know the meaning. Many of them were fond of sticking the letters "D. V." in all sorts of places instead of using the plain, homely English phrase "God willing." He knew one gentleman, rather shaky in his Latin, who in a letter to a friend wrote "I will be with you 'D. V.' on Monday, but anyway on Tuesday."—London Telegraph.

Why She Was Right.

Haydn had a peculiar way of determining the time in which a piece of music should be sung. On one occasion a female singer in high esteem at court had been appointed to sing one of Haydn's compositions. At the rehearsal she and the conductor differed as to the time of the music. The matter was to be settled by referring it to Haydn himself. When called on to decide, he asked the conductor if the singer was handsome.

"Very," was the reply, "and a special favorite with the prince."

"Then she is right," replied Haydn.

Nosebleed.

To stop bleeding at the nose, cut some blotting paper about an inch square, roll it about the size of a lead pencil and put it up the nostril that is bleeding. The hollow in it will allow the sufferer to breathe. The blood will fill the space between the tube and the nose and will very soon coagulate and cease to flow.

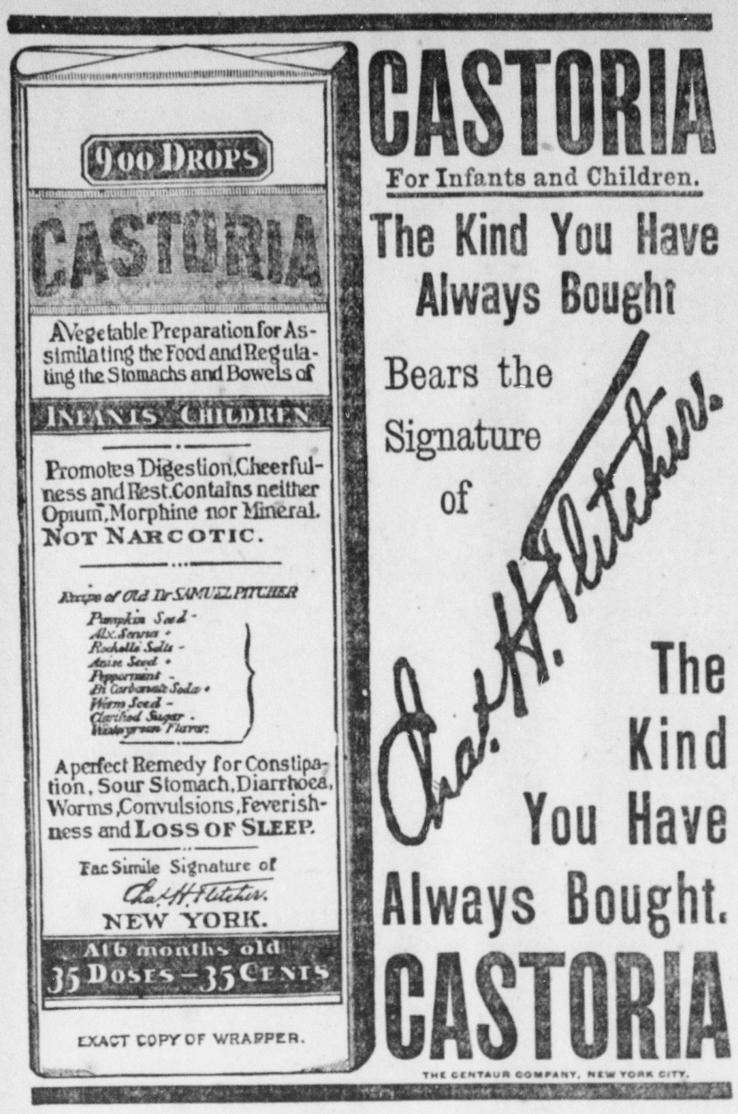
A Contractor.

Knicker—You say your son is a contractor. What is his special line?

Bocker—Debts.

A man who inadvertently steps upon a banana peel has doubts about the sustaining power of the fruit.—St. Louis Star.

English archers in battle used the longbow, French archers the crossbow. The longbow was certainly the better.



Fac-Simile Wrapper
Thirty Drops
CASTORIA
A Vegetable Preparation for Assimilating the Food and Regulating the Stomachs and Bowels of INFANTS CHILDREN
Promotes Digestion, Cheerfulness and Rest. Contains neither Opium, Morphine nor Mineral.
NOT NARCOTIC.
Recipe of Old Dr SAMUEL PITCHER
Pumpkin Seed -
Alx. Senna +
Rochelle Salts -
Anise Seed +
Peppermint -
Bi Carbonate Soda +
Worm Seed -
Clarified Sugar -
Wintergreen Flavor.
A perfect Remedy for Constipation, Sour Stomach, Diarrhoea, Worms, Convulsions, Feverishness and LOSS OF SLEEP.
Fac Simile Signature of
Chas. H. Fletcher.
NEW YORK.
At 6 months old
35 DOSES - 35 CENTS
EXACT COPY OF WRAPPER.

CASTORIA

For Infants and Children.

The Kind You Have Always Bought

Bears the Signature of Chas. H. Fletcher.

The Kind You Have Always Bought.

CASTORIA

THE CENTAUR COMPANY, NEW YORK CITY.

Andrew Carnegie's Views.

Andrew Carnegie has written an exhaustive article to the North American Review in which he defines his position on the presidential campaign. Although he is not altogether satisfied with our policy in regard to the Philippines and Porto Rico, he still prefers McKinley to Bryan and the doctrines of the Republican party to those of the Populistic school of Democracy. Mr. Carnegie expresses a lack of confidence in Colonel Bryan's understanding of affairs. He distrusts his judgment, and believes that he does not posses that broad grasp of affairs which should characterize a President of the United States. He concludes as follows:

"The party of protection to American industries, of internal improvements, the party of the Union, of emancipation, and of the highest standard of value for the money of the people, the party of Cuba free and independent, is not to be deserted for its failure so far to perform this same sacred duty to the Philippines. On the contrary the party which has been for a generation the guardian of our country, and whose wise legislation has secured its present commanding position, may wisely be trusted to find the lost path and return to it, thus retrieving it error."

The Whole Truth!

There's nothing so bad for a cough as coughing.

There's nothing so good for a cough as Ayer's Cherry Pectoral.

The 25 cent size is just right for an ordinary, everyday cold. The 50 cent size is better for the cough of bronchitis, croup, grip, and hoarseness. The dollar size is the best for chronic coughs, as in consumption, chronic bronchitis, asthma, etc.

A Prince for a Chambermaid.

A woman, talking to me about servants the other day, said that she liked the Japanese better than any others for many reasons, but that even they had their drawbacks, one being that they did not like to stay in the country after the first of October, as so many of them were college undergraduates. "I have a Columbia junior in my dining room," said she, "and a Harvard divinity student in my kitchen at the present time, but that is not all. A short time ago I had a chambermaid and waiter who was highly recommended to me by a fellow Japanese who had lived with me before. He was a nice looking little fellow but not a very good servant, for his mind seemed to be on other things rather than on his work. And then he would ask me such profound questions! I really could not answer them and he always had a book in his hand, even when he was making the beds. Finally I had to tell him that, as much as I liked him in many ways, I should be obliged to let him go. 'All right,' he said, and to my surprise he went that very day, while I was out, without waiting for his money. As money is usually the thing they work for, I wondered and waited, Hearing nothing from him, I wrote to the Japanese through whom I had engaged him, making a particular point of the unpaid wages. The man wrote back not to worry about that; that my ex-chamberman-and-waiter was not in need of money, that he was a prince who had come to America to travel and observe; that he was going to write a book on our manners and customs, and thought that the best way to learn them was to live in an American household! Since then I have been particular to ask my Japanese servants whether they are princes in disguise or only divinity students."

Aleck McConnell Seriously Injured While Trying to Break a Colt.

Quite a bad accident occurred Friday afternoon which resulted in serious injuries to Aleck McConnell, one of the hostlers in charge of Col. Reynold's stable. They have a young colt which they had never driven in a sulky and Friday afternoon Charlie Hurst, the head hostler thought he would try the experiment. They hitched the colt up and started out towards Allegheny street. Hurst was driving and McConnell was leading the colt. Suddenly it became unmanageable and defied the efforts of both men to hold it. McConnell was thrown down and trampled. One of his ribs was broken and several badly crushed. He was also cut and bruised about the head and body. Hurst was thrown out of the rear of the sulky and was also cut and badly bruised but not seriously injured.

Engine Over the Embankment.

A train from Watsontown on the Central Pennsylvania and Western railroad ran into a tree which had fallen across the track near Jersey Town Thursday, and the engine and two freight cars went over a high embankment. Fortunately, the automatic brakes set, thalting the passenger car on the verge of the embankment, thus saving the lives of twenty passengers, although all were badly shaken up. The engineer and fireman jumped just as the engine took the plunge and saved their lives.

—The Bellefonte Lime company Tuesday sent a donation of $20 to Mrs. Moore Fredericks, treasurer of the Lock Haven hospital fund.

DECLARED GOEBEL LIVING

Youtsey Raved and Was Carried Back to Prison

REMARKABLE SCENE IN MURDER TRIAL

It is a Lie—Outburst Provoked by Statement of Brother of the Dead Man—Screamed That They Were Trying to Swear Away His Life.

WIFE TRIED TO KEEP HIM QUIET.

GEORGETOWN, Ky., Oct. 10.—One of the most remarkable scenes ever enacted in a Kentucky court occurred last night in the trial of Henry E. Youtsey, charged with being a principal in the shooting of Governor Goebel, the defendant himself being the chief participant. The court room was crowded at the time and the excitement was intense. Dee Armstrong, the Louisville detective, had just told of his talks with Youtsey before and after his arrest. Then Arthur Goebel was put on the stand and Judge Benjamin Williams, who, for the first time, appeared for the prosecution, did the questioning.

Arthur Goebel said:

"I talked with Youtsey the day he was arrested, late in the afternoon, in the jail in Frankfort, in reference to the murder of my brother."

Just at this point Youtsey arose behind his attorneys and, in a loud voice, said:

"It is untrue, it is a lie; I never spoke a word to that man in my life nor he to me."

Colonel Crowford told him to be quiet and sit down and others took hold of him.

"I will not sit down. I never said a word to that man—it is untrue."

He was shouting by this time and everyone was becoming excited. Youtsey's wife sprang to his side and, while endeavoring to make him sit down, could be heard saying: "Now you have killed my husband, I suppose you are satisfied."

Then Youtsey hysterically shouted again: "I am innocent—there is no blood on my hands; these Men are swearing my life away."

Two or three deputy sheriffs went over and grabbed him. He struggled wildly and said:

"Let me alone. I will not sit down."

Arthur Goebel meanwhile sat sphynx like in the witness chair and never turned his head. Finally, after Youtsey was forced into a seat, he shouted again:

"Goebel is not dead. All the demons in hell could not kill him."

"Mr. Sheriff, if the defendant does not behave himself, put handcuffs on him," said Judge Cantrill.

Meanwhile the audience could not be forced to keep their seats until the judge threatened to fine those who stood up. Youtsey settled back in his chair, closed his eyes and seemed in a state of collapse. He waved his handkerchief above his head in an aimless sort of way and groaned and cried hysterically. Finally quiet was restored and Judge Williams asked Arthur Goebel another question, whereupon Colonel Crawford asked a postponement of the trial until today, on account of the defendant's condition. Judge Cantrill said that he could see no cause or reason for the defendant's outbreak, but, in justice to his attorneys, he would postpone the case until today.

Robbed the Grave.

A startling incident is narrated by John Oliver, of Philadelphia, as follows: "I was in an awful condition. My skin was almost yellow, eyes sunken, tongue coated, pain continually in back and sides, no appetite, growing weaker day by day. Three physicians had given me up. Then I was advised to use Electric Bitters, to my great joy, the first bottle made a decided improvement. I continued their use for three weeks, and am now a well man. I know they robbed the grave of another victim." No one should fail to try them. Only 50c., guaranteed, at F. Potts Green's drug store.

Funeral of D. M. Glenn.

The funeral of the late David McKinney Glenn took place Friday afternoon at 3 o'clock from his residence on Reynold's Avenue. Gregg Post, No. 95 G. A. R., of which the deceased was a charter member, turned out in a body. There was a large attendance of sorrowing friends and relatives and several very beautiful floral tributes were received.

The services were conducted by Rev. William Laurie, D. D., pastor of the Presbyterian church.

The pall-bearers were Thomas Donachy, H. B. Pontius, Col. Austin Curtin, Gen. John I. Curtin, W. H. Musser and Charles Eckenroth. Interment in the Union Cemetery.

CASTORIA

For Infants and Children.

The Kind You Have Always Bought

Bears the Signature of Chas. H. Fletcher.

TROUBLE IN THE COAL REGIONS.

Clash of Arms Between Special Policemen and Strikers.

HAZLETON, Pa., Oct. 11.—A special policeman was instantly killed, another was wounded in the head, a striker was probably fatally shot and 10 non-union men were more or less seriously wounded at the Oneida colliery of Coxe Bros. in a clash between the officers and 500 strikers yesterday morning.

The Oneida colliery having been in operation since the inauguration of the strike the union men at Oneida and Sheppton, where many of the employes of the Oneida and Derringer collieries of Coxe Bros., & Co. live, decided early this morning to close down the mine. They gathered in groups on the streets as early as 6 o'clock.

As the non-union men went to work they were asked by the strikers to remain at home. Some turned back, others did not. Those who went to the colliery were stoned. Van Blargin, one of the non union employes, attempted to pull a revolver, but the weapon was taken from him, and in the beating he received he had several ribs broken. This occurred just before starting time at the mine.

The strikers remained at the colliery all morning. As the small mine locomotives used in hauling coal from the No. 2 and No. 3 collieries to the Oneida breaker pulled up on the road near the latter colliery, a crowd of women blocked the track. The women were told by General Supt. Kudlick to go home. He assured them that their husbands would get an increase in wages and that their other grievances would be properly adjusted. The women refused to listen and stoned the superintendent, who was wounded in the head. Then the striking men and the women rushed toward the No. 2 colliery. A force of about 50 special policemen who had been brought down from Beavor Meadow to prevent trouble attempted to intercept the mob, but they were powerless to do anything and retired to the engine house.

Just as the officers got close to shelter a shot was fired. This was followed by another and in a few seconds many shots rang through the air. Policeman Mills was the first to fall. Then Jos. Lesko, a striker, staggered to the ground. No one knows who shot first, but it is believed that both the strikers and the officers used their weapons. A gunshot killed Mills and small shots struck policeman Kellner. Lesko, the striker, was struck by a shot from a revolver with which the policemen were armed.

Deafness Cannot Be Cured.

by local applications as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed deafness is the result, and unless the inflamation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by Catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars, free.

F. J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, O.
Sold by Druggists, 75c.
Hall's Family Pills are the best.

Neglected Graves of Two Pioneers to be Marked.

For some time ex-treasurer D. C. Keller, now of Potter township, has been collecting funds by popular subscriptions to have a tablet erected over the neglected graves of two pioneers who were killed near the Old Fort in 1779, by the Indians. The tablet is now finished and can be seen at the marble yard of Gotlieb Strohmeyer, Centre Hall. It bears the following inscription:

"In memory of Thomas Van Doran,
and
Jacob Shadacer,
Two soldiers killed July 24, 1778, in an encounter with five Indians."

The ceremony of placing this marker over the graves will be in charge of the Daughters of the American Revolution Bellefonte Chapter. They will call a meeting soon to select a date and arrange a program suitable for the occasion.

On page 7 of the recent Centennial History of Centre county the following extract will be found that refers to this incident more fully:

"July 25, 1778, Capt. Potter writes, 'Two white men went out to the plains a little below his fields and met five Indians whom they engaged. One of the soldiers, Thomas Van Doran, was shot dead. The other, Jacob Shadacer, came to a hand-to-hand encounter with one of the Indians, and both used their knives; Shadacer killed his antagonist. His fate was hard, for another Indian came up and shot him.' The two soldiers were buried in the lane a half mile east of Old Fort, now belonging to the Hennigh farm, two stones marking the graves."

—Be sure you understand the game laws before you begin slaying indiscriminately all sorts of wild things in the woods.

MINERS DEBATING

Likely to Reject Offer Made by The Operators.

THEY ARE LED BY MITCHELL

He Drops the Hint That the Subject Should be Left in the Hands of the National Officers for Settlement, Etc.

CONVENTION IS VERY UNWIELDY

SCRANTON, Pa., October 13.—Eight hundred and fifty-seven miners who hold in their hands the power to end or continue the anthracite coal miners' strike which has been in progress for more than three weeks, met in convention here yesterday for the purpose of considering the 10 per cent. net advance in wages offered by the operators and adjourned until today without taking any action on their employers' proposition. Both of yesterdays sessions were devoted to organizing the convention and to speeches by many of the delegates on the mine owners's concession.

It was not expected that anything would be done outside of a general exchange of views as to what action the delegates should take. The convention, after it was permanently organized went into secret session, but it was learned from authoritative sources that nothing of a definite nature was suggested which would lead to a solution of what is to the miners a knotty problem.

From the trend of the remarks of the delegates it was gathered that the 10 per cent. proposition as it now stands has a very remote chance of being accepted. The delegates seemed, it was learned, to be almost unanimous that the operators should first make concessions in the other grievances before the increase is accepted by the mine workers. Great stress was laid on the possibility of the abolishing of the sliding scale and substituting therefor a tonage basis on which to fix the rate on wages. The proposition of having the operators guarantee a fixed time for paying the advance was also thoroughly discussed, while not a few delegates said they would be satisfied with nothing but a more liberal increase in wages.

That the convention will come to some definite conclusion is not generally believed. It is the opinion of several of the labor leaders that the convention as at present constituted is a little unwieldy. There was a move on foot yesterday that the various propositions as they are suggested by the delegates should be submitted to a committee appointed by the convention for consideration and that this convention make a report to either this or a second convention. This movement, however, did not gain much of a start. Some of the delegates think that the whole subject should be left in the hands of the national officers, as hinted at by President Mitchell in his brief remarks just before the convention went into secret session. Mr. Mitchell is very popular among the miners, as was shown by the enthusiasm displayed as he delivered his opening address.

P. R. R. Opens a New Road.

The new Petersburg extension of the Penna. railroad, running from Mt. Etna to Petersburg, has been thrown open to traffic. First vice president Pugh was aboard the first train to pass over the road. It is anticipated that work will soon be begun on the Portage extension of the same railroad, the completion of which will give the Penna. an independent route down the eastern slope of the Alleghenies through Hollidaysburg, and will shorten the distance by rail 19 miles between Philadelphia and Pittsburg.

Bismarck's Iron Nerve

Was the result of his splendid health. Indomitable will and tremendous energy are not found where Stomach, Liver, Kidneys and Bowels are out of order. If you want these qualities and the success they bring, use Dr. King's New Life Pills. Only 25 cents at F. Potts Green's drug store.

Want Water Works.

Millheim's town council met in extra session Monday of last week and passed resolutions to submit at the regular election in November the proposition of increasing the borough's indebtendess $10,000 to be used for building water works. The question is not a new one in Millheim, for at a special election on Monday, September 12, 1898, it was defeated by about fifteen votes. It is the intention of the advocates of the water system to bring the water from Philips creek, where a good supply of excellent mountain water can be procured, and where a reservoir can be built at a very low cost. Heretofore that town depended entirely on wells and cisterns for their supply, which often was the source for contagion.

Deafness of 12 Years' Standing.

Protracted Catarrh produces deafness in many cases. Capt. Ben. Connor, of Toronto, Canada, was deaf for 12 years from Catarrh. All treatments failed to relieve. Dr. Agnew's Catarrhal Powder gave him relief in one day, and in a very short while the deafness left him entirely. It will do as much for you. 50 cents.—17

For sale by F. Potts Green.

Long Distance Tickets.

Distance is a thing of the past, when stage coaches lumbered through woody roads, the far West stopped at the Niagara river, and all beyond was as dark as the middle of Africa. Nowadays a man desires to go suddenly to Japan. He buys a ticket, a simple gray slip of yellow-backed paper, and in a month he is there, sprightly, well cared for and safe. Modern travel is an exact science.

These things were proven yesterday in Rochester. A well known business man hurried into the New York Central ticket office at 1 o'clock in the afternoon. Agent Kalbfleisch was at the desk.

"I wish you'd reserve me two berths on the Hong Kong Maru for Kobe, Japan," said he. "She sails August 29th from San Francisco."

Mr. Kalbfleisch made a brief note. "All right," he replied. "Come in about five o'clock. Looks like fall, doesn't it; so cold."

At 4:19 o'clock Mr. Kalbfleisch received a telegram from San Francisco. It read "22." This meant Agent Avery, of the Oriental Steamship Company, had received his order and reserved stateroom 22 for the two gentlemen from Rochester. At 5 o'clock the tickets were purchased. They are long, slim, unostentious pieces of paper which will carry their possessors 8,833 miles in 27 days, with three changes, one at Chicago, one at San Francisco and one at Yokohama. The travelers will start tonight.

This is one of the longest distance sales made in Rochester office since General Passenger Agent George H. Daniels brought into working form his idea of co-operative traveling accommodations. The longest passage ticket ever purchased at the Rochester office was sold for Christ church, New Zealand, a distance of 13,000 miles.—Rochester Post-Express.

Job Couldn't Have Stood It

If he'd had Itching Piles. They're terribly annoying; but Bucklen's Arnica Salve will cure the worst case of Piles on earth. It has cured thousands. For Injuries, Pains, Bodily Eruptions its the best salve in the world. Price 25c. a box. Cure guaranteed. Sold by F. Potts Green, druggist.

A Sad Tragedy Recalled.

A suit begun in Court No. 4 this week at Philadelphia, by Swithin C. Shortlidge, well known in Bellefonte, being a brother of Wm. Shortlidge deceased, to recover $7022.11 on an endowment life insurance policy, recalls a tale of tragedy and sorrow The action is brought by Mr. Shortlidge as administrator of Marie D. Jones Shortlidge, his deceased wife, against the Provident Life and Trust Co., the maker of the policy.

The plaintiff was, in the latter part of 1893, the principal of the Media Academy During Nov. of that year he married Marie D. Jones, and while the couple were enjoying their honeymoon Mr. Shortlidge became ill of the grippe. While convalescing, and walking arm in arm with his bride of 6 weeks along a road near his home in Media, on the morning of Dec. 30, 1893, he drew a revolver and fired five shots at the back of his wife's head. She died instantly. Professor Shortlidge's mind was found to be impaired, and after his arrest he was placed in a hospital for the insane. His reason having been restored, he was released from the institution several years ago, and has since resided in England.

The insurance policy was assigned by Mr. Shortlidge to his wife prior to the tragedy. On Sept. 17 last Mr. Shortlidge was made administrator of her estate by the Register of Wills of Delaware county. Several judgments against Mr. Shortlidge in which the Provident Company was attached as garnishee, were recently transferred to this country from Delaware county, and the payment of the sum due is withheld until these can be adjusted.

The Sunday School Convention.

The annual convention of Sunday Schools will be held in Altoona October 23-25, 1900. The Centre County delegates are as follows: Miss Emiline Alexander, Rev. G. W. Kershner, Rev. J. M. Rearick, Rev. W. W. Rhoads, Centre Hall; A. Lukenbach, Bellefonte; Rev. C. T. Aikens, Pine Grove Mills; Rev. D. E. Helper, Lemont, Rev. A. A. Black, Hon. W. A. Murray, Boalsburg; Prof. C. L. Gramley, Rebersburg, Mrs. W. H. Kreamer, and Miss Elsie Geiss, Centre Hall; Miss Winifred Wolf, Rebersburg. If other counties send as many that city will be overrun with good people.

CASTORIA.

Bears the Signature of Chas. H. Fletcher. The Kind You Have Always Bought

—When the Ohio Valley express left Pittsburg one morning over the Pan handle there was a harmless-looking keg in the baggage car, which looked so innocent that even a temperance orator would have used it for a seat. It was not so harmless as it looked, however, for just after the train left Benwood it exploded with a roar that startled all the passengers. It happened to be a keg of brewer's yeast, and as the contents had been forced in under high pressure the keg could not hold it and it let go. Valuable packages were blown to pieces, the car was littered with yeast and the express messenger had a narrow escape from serious injury. His clothes were ruined and everything in his car knocked helter skelter.

The Bellefonte Republican

To CORRESPONDENTS.—No communication published unless accompanied by the real name of the writer.

Correspondents should write upon but one side of the paper and avoid the use of pale or fancy inks.

WILBUR F. HARRIS.

Local Department.

—Henry Hoffmaster, of Spring Mills, has been granted a pension of $10. per month.

—Energy all gone? Headache? Stomach out of order? Simply a case of torpid liver. Burdock Blood Bitters will make a new man or woman of you.

—Dr. H. C. Holloway, of the Lutheran church, will begin a series of sermons at his church next Sunday evening on "Present Issues."

—All the healing balsamic virtues of the Norway pine are concentrated in Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup. Nature's own remedy for coughs and colds.

—A large pipe organ, the gift of Andrew Carnegie, was formally presented to the Methodist congregation of Punxsutawney on Friday of last week.

—Hundreds of lives are saved every year by having Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil in the house just when it is needed. Cures croup, heals burns, cuts, wounds of every sort.

—The physicians who have been attending the venerable Dr. George A. Fairlamb, who has been seriously ill at his rooms in the Bush House, report his condition as somewhat improved today.

—It's a mistake to imagine that itching piles can't be cured, a mistake to suffer a day longer than you can help. Doan's Ointment brings instant relief and permanent cure. At any drug store, 50 cents.

—The old pensioner, Mrs. Mary Williams, of East Logan street, who lost $30. last Friday afternoon on Allegheny street was fortunate to have it returned to her Saturday by the finder Thomas McCafferty, who saw her advertisement in the DAILY NEWS.

—W. F. Taylor Esq., at his home in Tyrone, joined in marriage at 1 o'clock to-day, David A. Weaver, of Benore, and Miss Nora Alberta Lykens, of near Warriorsmark. The happy young couple took the 2:40 train west this afternoon for a short honeymoon trip.—Tuesday's Tyrone Herald.

—Hereafter no loafing will be allowed on the South side of the High street bridge. Neat signs to that effect have been painted on the iron work of the bridge. This is by order of the Burgess and is a very commendable act and one that will meet with the approval of all right thinking people.

—In compliance with a request, we have made an investigation of the fence laws with reference to cattle, and have learned that the effect of the repeal of the act of 1700 by the act of April, 1889, has been to revive the common law rule requiring owners of cattle to keep such animals fenced in. The act of 1700 being the the only law in Pennsylvania containing an express requirement to erect fences, by its repeal, there exists no requirement to erect such fences.—Lock Haven Democrat.

—Monday afternoon while out hunting on Muncy mountains a gun in the hands of Ralph Van Valin was accidentally discharged the load of shot entering the back of Quinter Underwood the 18 year old son of Jason Underwood, of Unionville. Both young men reside at Unionville where young Underwood was taken and his wounds treated. It was found that he was not seriously injured and today he is able to walk around the streets. Van Valin is 16 years old and a son of Capt. Van Valin.

—Thursday morning the train carrying Hi Henry's minstrels from Clearfield to Altoona met with an accident that knocked one of the cars to pieces and injured one man. An engine had started to back the train out of Clearfield when the coupling broke and the cars started down the track and crashed into a draft of freight cars. The rear car was smashed to kindling wood, and the entire train received a shaking up by the shock. Claire Harvey, a cornet player, who was sleeping in the rear car, was thrown from his berth and badly bruised along the right side of the face. In addition three teeth were knocked out. He was taken to the hospital when the train reached Altoona and his injuries properly dressed. Not withstanding the accident the show was played up to the program at the Altoona opera house Thursday afternoon and evening.

Hogs Dying Off.

An epidemic exists in the vicinity of Jersey Shore that has killed a number of hogs and the rapidity with which it has spread causes much anxiety among the owners of porkers. Of the nature of the disease no one seems to know anything more than that the pigs are found dead in the sty. There is some talk of holding a post mortem over one of the animals to discover the cause and nature of the affliction.

Served Him Right.

Miss Edith Daring, of Wilkesbarre, was so annoyed by Isaac Reese attempting to flirt with her on the street, that she had the would be masher arrested. The alderman fined him ten dollars and costs, which with his attorney's fee cost him about thirty dollars.

MRS. CAROLINE E. ORVIS.

Widow of the Late Judge John Holden Orvis is Dead.

Caroline Elizabeth Orvis, widow of the late Judge John Holden Orvis, died at her home on east Linn street Friday evening at half past nine after an illness of about a years duration. Death was due to a general breaking down of the system.

Deceased was born in Salona, Clinton Co., Oct. 14, 1833, so that if she had lived until Sunday she would have been 67 years of age. She was the daughter of Origen Atwood, a well known iron manufacturer, and his wife Jane D. Jagger. On April 23, 1856, she was united in marriage at her hom at Salona to John Holden Orvis, then a resident of Clinton county. Later when her husband began the practice of law in Centre county they located in Bellefonte and she has resided here ever since. Her husband was one of the most distinguished jurists in the state and for 10 years was Additional Law Judge of Centre county. He also served two terms in the State Legislature previous to his term on the bench. He died at his home in this place Nov. 6, 1893.

The home life of Mr. and Mrs. Orvis wrs very pleasant and happy. Five children were born to them, one William dying in infancy. The surviving children are Ellis L., of Bellefonte; Mrs. A. E. Canfield, Wyncote, Pa.; Mrs. Harry Keller and Miss Caroline Atwood, of Bellefonte.

One brother Nathan L. Atwood, of Girard, Erie Co., also survives.

Mrs. Orvis was a lady of strong religious belief and was a member of the Christian church. There being no church of that denomination here she was a regular attendant at the Presbyterian church. She was of a kind and lovable nature and her death is received with universal regret by all who knew her.

The funeral took place Monday afternoon at 2 o'clock from her late residence. The services which were private were conducted by Rev Wm. Laurie. The interment was made in the Union cemetery.

The pall bearers were Hon. Daniel H. Hastings, Col. J. L. Spangler, C. M. Bower, D. F. Fortney, Dr. R. G. H. Hayes-Jas. Harris, J. Howard Lingle and John Ardell.

A Handsome Home.

James H. Potter, the hardware man, moved last week from his former residence on North Spring street to his beautiful new home on West Linn street. This was the old Curtin homestead but no one would recognize it in the handsome modern residence which now stands on that site. It is of the old Colonial style with beautiful broad piazzas which surround the front and both sides of the house. Both the exterior and interior has been gone over until now it is one of the finest homes in Bellefonte.

The carpenter work was under the supervision of Henry Lowry. The interior papering and painting was the work of Eckenroth & Montgomery while the exterior painting was done by S. H. William's men. The plumbing and steam fitting is of the latest modern type and was the work of R. J. Schad & Brother.

Annual Election of Y. M. C. A. Officers.

A very large and enthusiastic meeting was held in the Y. M. C. A. rooms Friday evening at 7:30 o'clock. Business of importance, tending to revive the interest in the work, was discussed and plans which augur well for future success were adopted.

Officers were elected for the ensuing year as follows:

President—James R. Hughes.

Vice President—William R. Gainfort.

Secretary—Francis Atwood.

Treasurer—Thomas Moore.

Board of Directors—George R. Meek, C. K. Hicklen, G. W. Rees, Oscar Wetzel, James Harris, Francis S. Rhoads, J. W. Gephart and Isaac Underwood.

There will be a meeting of the board of directors next Tuesday evening in the Y. M. C. A. rooms.

J. Victor Royer is the acting secretary.

A Baby's Sudden Death.

Randall Sasserman, the little 8 month old son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Sasserman of south Thomas St., died very suddenly some time Sunday night or Monday morning. When the family went to bed Sunday night the baby was apparently as well as usual but Monday morning when the mother went to the crib in which the little one reposed she found him cold in death. The angel of death had come while the baby slumbered and peacefully its spirit had wended its way to his final home on high.

The child had never been real strong and death is believed to have been due to spinal meningitis. This is the third child Mr. and Mrs. Sasserman have lost and they are certainly deserving of the heartfelt sympathy of the community in their hour of bereavement.

The funeral took place Tuesday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock from the house. Interment in the Union cemetery.

A Card of Thanks.

Our heartfelt thanks are extended to all who so ably assisted us in the recent bereavement which befell our family in the loss of a loving husband and brother.

MRS. D. M. GLENN
CHARLES GLENN

THE PUMPKIN CONTEST

Held by Montgomery & Co., Closed Saturday Afternoon—W. C. Eby, of Zion Won First Prize.

The third annual contest inaugurated by Montgomery & Co., and held under their supervision in which prizes were awarded to the farmers in Centre county raising the two largest pumpkins was brought to a successful close Ssturday afternoon at 3 o'clock.

The interest in this annual contest is growing and every year there is a larger number of contestants. Quite a crowd of spectators gathered at Montgomery's store Saturday afternoon when the contest closed to witness the weighing of the pumpkins and the awarding of the prizes. There were 25 pumpkins of all kinds and size entered. The judges were John C. Miller, Christ Decker and W. G. Runkle.

Lawyer Runkle was master of ceremonies while J. C. Miller occasionally cracked one of his "brilliant "(?) jokes to add sparkle to the event. Christ Decker stood back lynx-eyed and watched that everything was conducted fairly.

The pumpkins were weighed and it was found that A. O. Detweiler, of Tusseyville, had the largest one. It tipped the beam at 68 lbs. On being questioned however he stated that he did not raise this pumpkin himself. This lost him the prize as the rules are that the contestant must raise the pumpkin himself from seed furnished by Montgomery & Co.

The next largest pumpkin was owned by W. C. Eby, of Zion, weight 59 lbs., and he was awarded the first prize, his choice of a $10 suit or overcoat. The second prize went to Simon Parsons, of Milesburg, whose pumpkin weighed 56 lbs. The second prize was a suit or overcoat valued at $5.00.

All the other contestants received as a prize their choice of a dinner pail or an egg carrier.

Montgomery & Co., are to be commended for their generosity and enterprise in holding this contest.

Council Meeting.

Council met at 7:30 Monday evening with Pres. Gerberich in the chair and the following members present: Walkey, Wetzel, Knisely, Houser and Potter.

The minutes of the previous meeting were read and approved.

Harry Hoy appeared for Col. Reynolds and asked council to pay the last payment due on the Undine building. The amount with interest for 2 years was $560.00. The total amount paid by council toward erecting the Undine building was $1500, divided into three payments of $500 each with interest.

The street committee report as read by chairman Potter showed important work done on streets and alleys since last meeting night.

Mr. Wetzel of the water committee reported placing water meters at the Bush House, Beezer's livery stable and the Palace livery stable.

Fire and Police committee through Mr. Knisely reported that 6 extra police would be placed on duty in various parts of town during Fair week.

The Market committee reported collecting $6 00 market fees by the market clerk, Mr. Shaughensy, which had been turned over to the boro treasurer.

A complaint was made to the Burgess in regard to the noise made by the exhaust pipe at the Bellefonte Furnace pumping station near the car shops. Council set down on this complaint good and hard. It was laid on the table with the advice to the complainers that they move out of town if they are so much afraid of a little noise.

The question of extra police for Fair week was left in the hands of the Fire and Police committee with power to act.

The following bills were approved and ordered paid:

Street Pay Roll	68.22
Water Pay Roll	88.00
Police Pay Roll	40.00
W B Rankin, Ins	15.00
R. B. Taylor, coal	74.88
J. H. Wetzel, giving grades etc	8.00
H. B. Pontius, 1mo as clerk	12.50
Thos. Shaughensy, mkt. clerk	1.00
W. Fred Reynolds, Undine note	560.00
C. Miller, mason work on bridge	300.07
	$1228.57

In Cupid's Net.

The following marriage licenses were issued during the past week by Registrar A. G. Archey.

Harvey Geiser, of Mingoville, and Jennie I. Vonada, of Hublersburg.

Cyrus S. Bower and Sadie S. Zerby, both of Aaronsburg.

Bruce P. Loneberger, Linden Hall, and Hattie Reitz, of Boalsburg.

Wm. W. Ingram, of Pitcairn, and Annie M. Potter, of State College.

Clement G. Dale, of Oak Hall, and Carrie Scholl, of Houserville.

H. P. Schaeffer, of Bellefonte, and Sadie W. Hess, Shingletown.

W. H. Smith and Mary E. Otto, both of Bellefonte.

Unclaimed Letters.

The following letters remain in the Bellefonte Post Office uncalled for Oct. 16th, 1900:

Mary Bradley, Mrs. Sara A. Campbell, Clara Davis, Ella Decker, Robb Duncan, Messrs. Roup & Son, Chas. W. Smith, Mrs. Allen Welch.

When called for please say advertised

W. W. MONTGOMERY, P. M.

—More than one man who cannot earn his daily bread is willing to take a loaf.

PERSONAL PENCILINGS.

Ex-Governor Hastings spent Friday night in Lock Haven.

Rev. W. A. Stephens, of Carlisle, was a Bellefonte visitor Saturday.

Dr. Edith Schad returned home Saturday evening from Philadelphia.

Harry Johnson was an arrival home from Pittsburg Saturday morning.

Editor Dunham, of the Howard Hustler, was a Bellefonte visitor Saturday.

J. W. Kepler, Democratic candidate for Assembly, was in Bellefonte Monday.

Mrs. Annie Reynolds Christian, of Washington, D. C., is visiting friends in this place.

Miss Grace Armor, of this place, is visiting friends in Philadelphia, Lancaster and Tyrone.

Paul Fortney left for Pittsburg Saturday morning, where he will serve his country as a United States juror.

Mrs. Mary Burchfield, of Philipsburg, is a guest at the home of her brother, J. D. Shugert on Linn street.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward H. Richards, of East Linn street, are entertaining Mrs. William Kripps, of Philadelphia.

Joseph D. Mitchell came over from Burnham, near Lewistown Saturday to spend Sunday at his Bellefonte home.

C. M. Bower, W. G. Runkle and W. C. Heinle addressed a Democratic mass meeting at Coburn last Thursday evening

Miss Virginia Butterworth, of Vincentown, N. J., is visiting her school friend Miss Marguerite Potter of East Linn street.

D. W. Holt and wife, of Philipsburg, spent several days last week at Lemont, as guests of Mrs. Holts sister, Mrs. J. Y. Dale.

Mrs. M. W. Jackson and her daughter, Mrs. Wilbur F. Reeder left Friday for a few days visit with friends in Lock Haven.

Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Malin, of East Howard street left for Chester County Sunday afternoon to attend the funeral of an aunt of Mr. Malins.

Dr. E. H. Harris, of the Hahneman hospital staff, of Philadelphia, is at present in Bellefonte recuperating from a threatened attack of pneumonia.

Samuel Eldredge, a former student at the Bellefonte Academy and now a successful young lawyer of Cape May City, N. J., is visiting friends in this place.

Prof. J. J. Lejeal, of Erie, Pa., the well known piano tuner, who has been coming to Bellefonte for many years past, is registered at the Brockerhoff House.

Judge John G. Love, of Centre county, and Judge Cyrus Gordon, of Clearfield county, were judicial guests registered at the Park Hotel in Williamsport Friday night.

Wm. Thomas arrived home Saturday morning from Jersey City where he has been working for the Baldwin Locomotive works. Will is an old Bellefonte boy and his many friends heartily welcome him home.

Mr. Harry Kepner, who is employed by Messrs. Jenkins & Lingle, left on Friday evening to spend a few days at his home at Berwick, Pa., Harry is a fine young man who has won many friends since he has been in Bellefonte.

Mr. Arthur Black, who has been working at Niagara Falls, returned to Bellefonte Saturday and will resume his old position at the Penn. Match works. Arthur has many friends in Bellefonte who will certainly welcome his coming back.

General David McMurtrie Gregg, of Reading, the famous cavalry leader of the Northern Army in the Civil War, whose brilliant achievements at Gettysburg won him honor and distinction, was an arrival in Bellefonte Saturday enroute to the home of his sister Mrs. George Dorsey Greene at Briarly.

Irvin Gray, of Stormstown the noted Centre County horseman, who was seriously injured at the recent Lewisburg fair, has recovered and arrived in Bellefonte Monday to attend the fair and personally take charge of his horses "Sallie Derby" and "Luella McC," who are entered for the races this week.

Mrs. Anna Woodcock and her son, Dr. Lee B. Woodcock, left this week for Scranton, Pa., where they will make their future home. Dr. Woodcock will locate there to practice his profession and will open an office at once. Their many friends in this place will wish them abundant success in their new home.

Prominent among the guests from nearby towns, at the Hickok-Hastings wedding reception last week were Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Morris, of Tyrone; Mr. and Mrs. A. Bowman Weaver, of Clearfield; Major and Mrs. W. C. Kress, of Lock Haven, and Rev. Dr. Edward J. Gray, president of the Williamsport Dickinson Seminary.

One of the most prominent Harrisburgers at the Hickok-Hastings wedding last week was Benjamin M. Nead, Esq. Mr. Nead is among the leaders of the Dauphin county bar and is recognized as a lawyer of distinguished ability. He is the Democratic candidate for the Legislature from the city of Harrisburg district and if he is not elected next month it will be because the voters of Harrisburg irrespective of politics do not want to have a man of his sterling worth and exceptional character and ability represent them in the General Assembly.

Royal

BAKING POWDER

-Absolutely Pure-

For the third of a century the standard for strength and purity. It makes the hot bread, hot biscuit, cake and other pastry light, sweet and excellent in every quality.

No other baking powder is "just as good as Royal," either in strength, purity or wholesomeness.

Many low priced, imitation baking powders are upon the market. These are made with alum, and care should be taken to avoid them, as alum is a poison, never to be taken in the food.

ROYAL BAKING POWDER CO., 100 WILLIAM ST., NEW YORK.

Col. W. Fred Reynolds spent Monday in Altoona.

D. E. Woodring of Milesburg spent Saturday at Tyrone.

Al S. Garman, of Tyrone, was a Bellefonte visitor Wednesday.

Judge John G. Love was a passenger west Tuesday morning.

Hon. John A. Woodward, of Howard, transacted business in town Wednesday.

Ex-Judge A. O. Furst is attending to legal business at Scranton this week.

Mrs. A. S. Garman of Tyrone, is spending this week with friends in Bellefonte.

J. Barrett Martin, of Pittsburg, was a guest over Sunday with friends at State College.

W. H. Longz, Howard's enterprising miller, was noticeable on our streets Wednesday.

John Sebring, of Loveville, arrived in town Wednesday to attend the Centre County Fair.

Dr. Geo. W. Atherton, president of the Penna. State College, was a Bellefonte visitor Wednesday.

Ex-Gov. Hastings and Col. J. L. Spangler were guests at the Logan House, Altoona Monday night.

Mrs. Thos. K. Morris, of Tyrone, is visiting her parents Hon. and Mrs. P. Gray Meek of this place.

Mrs. Walter Lilly and child, of Lewisburg, are visiting Mr. and Mrs. John Olewine of north Spring street.

Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Poorman and daughter, Caroline, of Tyrone spent Sunday with friends at Milesburg.

Mrs. Houser, wife of Councilman J. W. Houser, of East Bishop street, is visiting friends in Pittsburg and Sharon, Pa.

Mrs. John Hoffman, of Williamsport, is visiting her parents Mr. and Mrs. G. R. Spigelmyer at their beautiful new home on west Howard St.

Maurice Otto, of Thomas, Washington county, Pa., attended the wedding of his sister, Miss Edith Otto to W. H. Smith at this place Wednesday.

Judge Cyrus Gordon, of Clearfield, came to town Tuesday with gun and dog to try his skill as a markmanon the Nittany Rod and Gun club preserves.

Henry D. Lyon and wife, of Danville, are attending the Centre county fair at this place this week. They are guests at the home of his brother, William Lyon.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Cowdrick and Mr. and Mrs. Harry Cowdrick, all of Niagara Falls, were here to attend the Smith-Otto wedding Wednesday afternoon.

W. W. Hicklen, wife and son, of Cedar Rapids, Ia., were guests Tuesday at the home of his brother, Cheney Hicklen, of Logan St. Mr. Hicklen is a native of Centre Co., but it is 6 years since he last visited Bellefonte.

Rev. Ralph Illingsworth, formerly the Presbyterian minister at Stormstown and Pine Grove Mills, but now located at Erie, Pa., was a Bellefonte visitor Monday Although a young man, Rev. Illingsworth is one of the ablest orators in the pulpit today.

Hon. Harry E. Grimm, of Bucks Co., democratic candidate for Congressman-at-Large, and Hon. A. B. Osborne, of Erie, were arrivals in Bellefonte Wednesday afternoon. They addressed a Democratic rally in the Court House in the evening.

Miss Julia L. Reed, formerly an instructor at the Bellefonte Academy, has returned to Cuba for the winter. She has been spending the summer at Sharon, Conn., and returns to the island to resume her work in the Collegio M. L. Dolz, Prado 64, Havana.

SCHAEFFER—HESS.

A Pretty Home Wedding Which Took Place Wednesday.

The home of Michael Hess at Shingletown, this county, was the scene of a very pretty wedding Wednesday morning at 11:30 o'clock. The happy parties to this marriage contract were Miss Sarah W. Hess, daughter of Mr. Hess and Harvey Schaeffer, of Bellefonte.

Quite a number of the friends of the young couple gathered at the home of the bride to witness the ceremony which was performed by Rev. C. T. Aikens, of Pine Grove Mills.

The bride was attired in white French lawn. She carried a beautiful bouquet of bride's roses.

The groom was attired in the usual costume worn on such occasions.

Many beautiful presents were received. After a most enjoyable wedding dinner the bride and groom left on a short wedding tour after which they will locate in Bellefonte where the groom is employed in D. Irvin & Son's hardware store.

Real Estate Transfers.

The following real estate transfers have been recorded during the past week by Recorder N. E. Robb:

C. S. Garbrick et ux to H. L. Truckenmiller, dated Sept. 6, 1900; 9 acres, 106 perches, in Walker twp. Consideration, $575.00.

George W. Hollabaugh et ux to John H. Leech, dated Oct. 10, 1900; 165 acres, 140 perches, in Harris twp. Consideration, $158.20.

Eugene A. High to William J. Potts, dated Feb. 12, 1900; 217 acres in Howard twp. Consideration, $1.00.

David Keller et ux to Annie Patterson, dated July 17, 1900; 4950 square feet in Harris twp. Consideration, $300.00.

James C. Showers et ux to F. S. Wells, dated Oct. 15, 1900; 3 lots in Walker twp. Consideration, $1100.00.

Appointments Made.

The Pittsburg conference of the A. M. E. church which closed its sessions at the Bethel church at Pittsburg Monday night made the following appointments for this district:

Pittsburg district—Presiding elder, Benjamin Wheeler; Bethel, J. W. Gazaway; Euclid Ave., J. W. Jeffries; Wilkesbarre, R. H. Bumry; Williamsport, D. E. Johnson; Scranton, D. S. Bentley; Altoona, A. Smother; New Haven, S. B. Morris; Tyrone, S. A. Lewis; Philipsburg, J. M. Wilkes; Braddock, W. U. Young; Bloomsburg, D. Newsome; Bellefonte, C. N. Woodson; Bedford, O. T. Davis; Waverly Chas. Garner; Greensburg, T. A. J. West; Lock Haven, M. S. Jones; Duquesne and Finleyville. J. W. Riley; transfers, T. A. Gaen to Virginia, and J. H. Grant to the Tennessee conferences.

Colonel Clearwater in Town.

Col. A. A. Clearwater, of Elk County, our Republican candidate for congress, was an arrival in Bellefonte Wednesday. The Colonel expects to remain in our midst for several days for the purpose of extending his acquaintance among our citizens. He is a genial gentleman of attractive and pleasing manners, and to know him is to admire and respect him. He has rooms at the Bush House where he will be pleased to receive all who honor him with a call.

Thirty-two Wounds in His Side.

The hunting season was ushered in with an accident that nearly cost Clyde Shoemaker, of Montoursville, his life. While hunting at daybreak he was mistaken, as his knee showed from behind a tree, for a squirrel and peppered with shot by James Murphy. Shoemaker has 32 distinct wounds in his right side.